CARRANZA WILL HAVE TO PROVE ABILITY TO CHECK BORDER RAIDS

Until This is Done, the American Expeditionary Force Will Remain Across Border.

NOTE REGARDED OFFENSIVE

Probably the Most Offensive That Has Ever Been Received by the United States.

IT CAUSED NO EXCITEMENT

Officials Prepared to Refute Many of the Statements.

Washington, June 1. — General Carranza's note demanding withdrawal of American troops from Mexico has brought no change in the determination of President Wilson to maintain the present troop disposition until the ability of the de facto government to police its side of the border has been demonstrated. It was stated authoritatively today that General Pershing's force would remain where it is, until that time arrived.

Wilson to Decide on Reply.

A reply will be made to General Carranza but the form it will take had not been determined tonight. President Wison read the hasty translation of the long communication last night. A corrected text is being prepared by the State Department for his information.

While official comment is withheld, it is understood that the tone of the document is regarded as decidedly offensive, and certain portions of it, such as the thinly veiled accusation that the President is playing domestic politics in retaining the troops in Mexico, may draw a sharp rebuke. It is doubtful, according to authorities on the international correspondence of the United States, if the government ever has received a communication couched in as offensive terms and containing as many apparent violations of the ordinary uses of diplomatic courtesy as this 12,000 word arraignment of its good faith and honesty of purpose.

President Wilson himself will decide what course shall be pursued. So far as could be learned tonight, no conferences or preliminary inquiries have yet been initiated to determine the nature of the reply. Apparently none are necessary so far as the withdrawal of the troops is concerned. There is no indication that that possibility is even being considered. The President left Washington tonight for Annapolis to attend graduating exercises tomorrow at the Naval Academy

Answer Not Pressing.

The Mexican note was sent by messenger, requiring a week in transit and was further delayed after its arrival here. Officials feel there can be no question of urgency in a communication so handled and will not treat it as a pressing matter.

As a matter of fact, the new note caused hardly a ripple in administration circles. No news went to General Funston beyond request to the officials of the general staff for detailed information of the disposition of Carranza troops.

In view of the note's open threat of an attack on Pershing's column, it was thought wise to give attention to the military problem.

All Embassies Given Copies.

The Mexican embassy distributed copies of the new note to all embassies and legations in Washington today, explaining that it did so in an effort to enlist the sympathy of other governments for the cause it sets forth. Presumably this was done under direction of General Carranza himself. Neither State Department officials nor members of the diplomatic corps would comment on this phase of the matter.

Some diplomatic officials expressed the opinion, however, that European influence might be behind the move; while others thought it merely an attempt to gain publicity and noted that the matter was urged just on the eve of the political conventions in the United States.

Officials are prepared to refute many of the statements of the Carranza note should the President desire to enter into a discussion of facts in his reply. Among these are repeated declarations that General Scott, chief of staff, specifically agreed with General Obregon that no new expeditions should cross the border, and admitted that the object of General Pershing's drive into Mexico had been accomplished. It is known that General Scott had no such understanding when the El Paso conference ended.

As to the object of the expedition having been accomplished army officials believe that only the presence of General Pershing's force where it is assured a large part of the border of freedom from attack. They are not disposed to depend on repelling invasion at the line when it is feasible to prevent the attempts at raids before they start.

FIRST SCRIMMAGE AT CHICAGO OVER

Roosevelt and Hughes Factions Defeat Attempt to Have Sub-Committees Hear Contests.

JUBILANT OVER VICTORY

Republican Leaders Want to Know Whether Roosevelt is Going to Run Regardless of Who the Republicans Nominate.

Chicago, June 1.—Political supporters of Roosevelt and Hughes were jubilant tonight over the defeat of the attempt made by certain members of the Republican National committee to have the contests over delegates heard by sub-committees instead of by the full committee which always has decided these disputes.

When Chairman Hilles suggested that sub-committees go over the documents in the contests so that the full committee need not waste time considering trivial disputes, the Roosevelt and Hughes supporters feared a possible plot to have the contests considered in secret sessions and they vigorously protested. Senator Reed Smoot, National committeeman from Utah, a Hughes supporter, led the fight against the plan and succeeded in having the motion voted down. Roosevelt and Hughes forces claimed an important victory in this first scrimmage with the organization.

Chairman Hilles and managers of the "favorite son" candidates professed to see no significance in the action and insisted that the only purpose of the appointment of sub-committees was to expedite the proceedings.

Will Roosevelt Run Anyway?

Republican leaders today began to inquire what action will be taken by the Progressive National Convention which meets June 7. They are trying to get some definite information as to whether Colonel Roosevelt really intends to run for President as the candidate o fthe Progressive party in the event another man is chosen by the Republicans.

Harold L. Ickes, Progressive National Committeeman from Illinois, declared that he favored nominating Roosevelt regardless of any action taken by the Republicans. He said Roosevelt was the first and only choice of the Progressives for President and that he believed Roosevelt would be nominated. Word was received from numerous Progressive state delegations that they favored nominating Roosevelt on the first ballot and adjourning the convention without waiting to see what the Republicans may do.

George W. Perkins, chairman of the executive committee of the Progressive party, in a statement made tonight said:

Perkins Issues Statement.

"There is no denying the fact that many of our delegates are in favor of nominating Roosevelt without waiting. Just what will be done no one can tell at this time, personally I am in favor of waiting until the atmosphere of the Republican convention clears before making a nomination. I stand by the statement issued by the Progressive National committee last January. I am here in a spirit of conciliation and hoping that the Republicans may nominate a candidate and adopt a platform that we can endorse. I think we should confer with the Republican leaders in an effort to reach a satisfactory agreement. I have talked to none of the Republican leaders but I expect to before we get through."

CONFERENCE OF FEDERATION OF WOMEN'S CLUBS CLOSES.

Newly Elected President and Other Officers Are Installed.

New York, June 1.—State presidents and chairmen of departments of the General Federation of Women's Clubs at a conference here today marking the close of the 13th biennial convention decided to hold "simplified" conventions in the future because of the difficulties experienced here. It was reported that hundreds of delegates left before the close of the convention because of the defective acoustics of the Seventh Regiment armory and the confusion caused by holding meetings in nearly a dozen other halls.

Mrs. Cowles and the other new officers, including Mrs. Eugene Reilly, of Charlotte, N. C., vice president, whose elections were announced at today's business session, were installed at the concluding exercises tonight.

ARTHUR W. WAITE TO PAY PENALTY OF DEATH JULY 10

Delivers Short Speech in Court Room —New Trial Denied.

New York, June 1.—Dr. Arthur Warren Waite was today sentenced to die in the electric chair during the week of July 10. The penalty for the murder of his father-in-law, John E. Peck, of which he was convicted. When Dr Waite was presented to the bar his counsel moved that he be granted a new trial. This was denied by the court, and sentence was then imposed.

When Justice Shearn concluded the sentence Waite delivered a short speech in which he expressed appreciation of the manner in which his trial was conducted and his thanks to the court, the prosecutors and to his own attorney.

'BIG NAVY' YARDS ARE ACCEPTED SUCCESSFUL

LIBRARY OF CONGRESS WASHINGTON, D. C.

Obtain Appropriation Not to Exceed $6,000,000 for Enlarging Seven Navy Yards.

BILL OTHERWISE AMENDED

Hensley Resolution for Participation in International Peace Court Retained—Speaker Clark Defended the Provision.

Washington, June 1. — Advocates of greater preparedness than is provided by the naval bill as reported by the committee won some victories today in the House. They succeeded in obtaining appropriations not to exceed $6,000,000, for enlarging the navy yards at Norfolk, New Orleans, Charleston, Boston, Portsmouth, N. H., Philadelphia and Puget Sound.

Capital ships would be constructed at the Norfolk, Puget Sound, Philadelphia and Boston yards. An amendment designed to lower the enlistment period in the navy from four to three years, and to permit men to enter the reserve after one year's service, also was adopted.

Peace Section Retained.

An unsuccessful fight was led by Representative Gardner, of Massachusetts, against the section of the naval bill embracing the Hensley resolution authorizing participation by the United States in the establishment of an international court for the enforcement of peace. The section was retained without a rall call in the House, sitting as a committee of the whole.

Pacifists, so-called "little navy" men, and many advocates of general preparedness, rallied to the support of the section. Speaker Clark took the floor and aroused enthusiasm by declaring the section was the best feature of the bill.

The Hensley section would appropriate $200,000 and provide for the appointment of nine men by the President at the close of the European war to enter into negotiations with other countries for establishment of an international court to enforce peace. It was placed in the bill as a compromise when it appeared that the opponents of a greater navy would not support the committee's measure.

Representative Gardner declared the plan could not be carried out, and that if the United States had been a party to such an agreement in 1914, Congress would not have voted to send the coun-

TELLS OF WORK OF THE BUREAU OF OPERATIONS

Is Doing Much For Increasing Efficiency of the Navy.

Admiral Benson Says It Has Made a Long Step Towards Carrying Out Secretary Daniels' Policy of Efficiency.

Annapolis, Md., June 1.—What the Bureau of Operations, created 14 months ago, has done to co-ordinate the navy's activities and to put it on a more efficient basis was detailed by Rear Admiral Benson, Chief of Operations, at a banquet given tonight by the graduating class of the Naval Academy.

Responding to the toast, "The Navy," Admiral Benson declared that Secretary Daniels' creed was 100 per cent efficiency for men and ships and that the operations bureau had made possible a long step toward realization of such a policy, under which "every unit of the fleet will at all times be ready to perform its functions, whatever the occasion that may require its service."

Only the fragments of organization existed in the Navy Department before the bureau was created, Admiral Benson said, and his work necessarily began at the bottom. There was no assembled data with which to work, not even adequate information as to naval strength of other countries. To find what ship was available for special duty was a task of several hours inquiry.

"The conditions I found," continued the admiral, "could not in any degree be laid at the door of the Secretary. He has at all times shown the most interest and cordial sympathy in all the various features recommended for the development of this office, and he has given particular attention to every measure tending to increase the efficiency of the service in general."

Outlining what has been accomplished by the bureau, Admiral Benson cited the mobilization of communication systems recently demonstrated by the department; the reorganization of the entire naval service with flag officers in command of all distinct divisions; the measures taken to develop the submarine and aviation services; reorganization of the reserve ships with adequate crews of highly trained men capable of breaking in quickly volunteers in time of war; arrangements for mobilization of the naval militia and the establishment of summer training cruises for citizen volunteers, mapping out of plans for advance and submarine bases; preparation of annual maneuver and cruising programmes for the fleet which are carried out strictly on schedule; co-operation through councils composed of bureau officials and the naval consulting board.

LOUIS D. BRANDEIS IS CONFIRMED BY SENATE 47 TO 22

Ends One of the Bitterest Contests Ever Waged Against a Presidential Nominee.

A FIGHT SINCE JANUARY 28

Only One Democrat Opposed Confirmation, While Three Republicans Favored It.

Washington, June 1.—The nomination of Louis D. Brandeis, of Boston, to the Supreme Court to succeed the late Joseph Rucker Lamar was confirmed by the Senate today by a vote of 47 to 22. The vote, taken without debate, ended one of the bitterest contests ever waged against a Presidential nominee. Mr. Brandeis will be thefirst Jew to occupy a seat on the Supreme bench.

Only one Democrat, Senator Newlands, voted against confirmation. Three Republicans, Senators LaFollette, Norris and Poindexter, voted with the Democratic majority, and Senators Gronna and Clapp would have done so but were paired with Senators Borah and Kenyon.

The negative vote of Senator Newlands was a complete surprise to the Senate and the Nevada Senator, recognizing that his action had aroused comment, later made public a formal explanation.

"I have a high admiration for Mr. Brandeis as a publicist and propagandist of distinction," said Senator Newlands. "I do not regard him as a man of judicial temperament, and for that reason I have voted against his confirmation."

Throughout the fight President Wilson stood firmly behind his nominee, never wavering, even when it seemed certain that an unfavorable report would be returned by the Senate Judiciary committee. Before the committee voted he wrote a letter to Chairman Culberson, strongly urging prompt and favorable action.

Senators who voted for confirmation today were:

Democrats — Ashurst, Bankhead, Beckham, Gore, Broussard, Chamberlain, Chilton, Culberson, Fletcher, Hardwick, Hitchcock, Hollis, Hughes, Husting, James, Kern, Lane, Lea, of Tennessee; Lee, of Maryland; Lewis, Myers, O'Gorman, Overman, Phelan, Pittman, Ransdell, Reed, Saulsbury, Shafroth, Sheppard, Shields, Simmons, Smith, of Arizona; Smith, of Georgia; Smith, of Maryland; Smith, of South Carolina; Stone, Taggart, Thomas, Thompson, Underwood, Vardaman and Walsh—Total 44.

Republicans—LaFollette, Norris and Poindexter—Total 3.

Voting against confirmation were:

Republicans—Brady, Brandegee, Clark, of Wyoming; Cummins, Curtis, Dillingham, Dupont, Fall, Gallinger, Harding, Lippitt, Lodge, Nelson, Oliver, Page, Smith, of Michigan; Sterling, Sutherland, Townsend, Warren and Works—Total 21.

Democrats—Newlands—1.

The following pairs were announced. Senators named first being for confirmation and those named second against:

Senators who were not paired and who did not vote were: Clarke, Democrat; Sherman and McLean, Republicans—Total 3.

The nomination of Mr. Brandeis was sent to the Senate January 28. It was referred to the Judiciary committee, and immediately a flood of protests against confirmation and memorials in favor thereof began to pour in.

A sub-committee consisting of Senators Chilton, Fletcher, Walsh, Cummins and Works, appointed to report on the nomination, adopted the unusual course of holding public hearings. Clifford Thorne, railroad commissioner of Iowa, was the first witness, protesting against confirmation on the ground that Mr. Brandeis had been guilty of unprofessional conduct in handling the 5 per cent rate advance case before the Interstate Commerce Commission. Sydney W. Winslow, president of the United Shoe Machinery Company, testified that Mr. Brandeis had been guilty of unprofessional conduct in relation to his company, and shortly thereafter Austen G. Fox, a New York attorney, appeared before the committee as the representative of 55 citizens of Boston, headed by A. Lawrence Lowell, president of Harvard, and took charge of the opposition. Then United States District Attorney George W. Anderson, of Boston, at the request of the committee, undertook direction of the case for those favoring confirmation.

ST. LOUIS TAKING ON SOME ACTIVITY

Headquarters of "Roger Sullivan for Vice-President" Opened by John F. O'Malley.

SUB-COMMITTEEMEN ARRIVE

Will Today Take Up Apportionment of Tickets, Assignment of Delegations in Convention and Select Temporary Officers.

St. Louis, June 1.—The establishment of "Roger Sullivan for vice president' headquarters and the arrival of a working quorum of the members of the sub-committee on arrangements of the Democratic National Committee were the principal developments in the pre-convention activities here today. Chairman McCombs, of the National Committee, is expected here tomorrow morning.

Among the important matters to be considered at tomorrow's meeting of the sub-committee are the apportionment of tickets, the assignment of delegations in the convention and the selection of temporary officers for the convention. Committeemen here decline to disclose the names of t e men under consideration for the temporary chairmanship, although Senator Stone of Missouri, has been mentioned as a possibility.

No attempt will be made to frame the party platform until the convention meetings, according to J. Bruce Kremer, secretary of the National committee.

"We all know it will be a Wilson platform," he said.

Announcement was made tonight that 124 additional seats will be installed in the press section, bringing the total to 472. Even this is only a fraction of the number applied for by newspapermen.

Announcement also was made Secretary Kremer that all who come to St. Louis to see the convention will see it whether or not they have tickets of administration. Mr. Kremer would not go into detail but it is known that members of the committee are considering the advisability of naming one afternoon or morning during which all the marching clubs brought to this city convention week and all other persons who are anxious to see the convention in session will be permitted to pass through the hall.

FIRST REPORT ISSUED ON COTTON CONDITION

Shows the Average to be 77.5 Per Cent Normal May 25.

This Condition Compares With 80 Per Cent on the Same Date Last Year. Probable Size of Crop Not Yet Estimated.

Washington, June 1.—The cotton crop of the United States showed a condition of 77.5 per cent of a normal on May 25, the Department of Agriculture announced today in its first condition report of the season, awaited with interest by cotton, textile and other interests. That condition compares with 80 on May 25 last year, 74.2 in 1914; 79.1 in 1913, and 79.8, the average of the last ten years on May 25.

Until the government's official report estimating the area planted to cotton this year is issued on July 1, no calculation will be made by the department's experts as to the probable size of the crop. Unofficial estimates place the area planted at from 6 to 10 per cent more than last year when the preliminary estimate made by the department in July was 31,535,000 acres. An increase of from 6 to 10 per cent in the area this year would place the acreage at from 33,417,000 to 34,688,500 acres.

Cotton planting was begun in the central and southern portions of the belt late in March and early in April but some early planted failed to germinate in Texas because of dry weather. Planting in the extreme southern portions was completed early in April and was progressing satisfactorily in central districts. Heavy frosts in Texas April 9 killed considerable cotton. In the low bottoms of Mississippi the ground was too wet for planting early in April.

Planting begun in the more northern portions of the belt toward the middle of April and was growing favorably in the central districts, while in the southern parts it was reported to be coming to a good stand. Some replanting was necessary on account of frost damage through nearly all the central part of the belt. In Texas replanting was delayed by dry weather, and there was a lack of rainfall in the eastern parts of the belt.

Weather was generally favorable for cotton work in the southeastern states late in April but it was much too cool for proper germination and plant

GERMANS SHIFT DRIVE TO SECTOR BETWEEN THIAUMONT AND VAUX

REPUBLICANS HAVE NO SET PRINCIPLES

Secretary Baker Declares the Party is an Aggregation of Disagreeing Factions.

WITHOUT NATIONAL POLICY

Says Democratic Party Now Presents a Matured Policy, Evolved by a Great Leader — Predicts Wilson's Re-Election.

Columbus, Ohio, June 1.—Secretary of War Baker, in an address as chairman of the Ohio Democratic convention here today, declared the Republican party is "an aggregation of factions agreeing upon no set of principles," and compared it with the Democratic party which he said had carried out a wise and definite programme in economic measures, national preparedness and foreign policy. The party will be continued in power to mature its programme, he predicted.

Referring briefly to politics in Ohio his home state, the Secretary expressed the hope that the present Republican administration "characterized by feebleness and uncertainty" would be replaced by the Democrats next year and that special attention would be given to relieving the financial stringency of Ohio cities.

Secretary Baker praised President Wilson for pressing enactment of the federal reserve and rural credits systems, tariff reduction, for upholding American ideals in dealing with Mexico, and for steering the United States away from participation in the European war. He expressed satisfaction that the preparedness programme has been moderate.

Attacking the Republican party, Secretary Baker said:

"To speak of a man as a Republican today identifies him with no cause, ascribes to him no opinion; and whether it affiliates him with progressives or reactionaries or both cannot be told until after the national convention in Chicago next week."

He declared that Senator Harding, of Ohio, who will preside at the Republican convention, represents one faction which believes the tariff should be the issue in the coming campaign, while other Republicans favor an attack on foreign polic yof the present administration. Opposition camps divided into those who believe the administration has been too hellicose and those who fear it has been too peace-loving, he said.

A "Third Group."

"Then there is a third group" the Secretary continued, "headed by the Great Detractor, who, shifting from position to position on the nation's foreign policy, selects at each time apparently whatever vantage point seems to offer an opportunity fo rmaking difficult the position of the President and Congress.

"In other words, what used to be the strong coherent, logical organization known as the Republican party is now, so far as its leaders are concerned, an aggregation of factions, agreeing on no set of principles, advocating no national policy, the only common bond or union being a willingness to pool issues to win. And this party is about to meet in convention at Chicago to select whatever candidate looks best at the last moment and whatever principles promise to weather the storm until November.

"In contrast to this, the Democratic party, having lived through years of doubt and hesitation, with a central philosophy sometimes more a yearning than a programme, now presents a matured policy, evolved by a gerat leader, welcomed by his party associates as the real expression of their political ideals."

Democracy's Record.

Secretary Baker declared the federal reserve act, by steadying business and commerce during the trying period of the European war, alone "would afford a record for courage and wisdom upon which the party could confidently appeal to the country." It has eliminated the power of a few financiers to cause a panic, he stated. The rural credits legislation "is the first comprehensive recognition by the nation of the needs and rights of those who till the soil as the foundation of our entire economic structure," said the secretary.

OIL MILL MEN AT BANQUET.

Officers Will be Elected by Convention Today at Charlotte.

Charlotte, N. C., June 1. — The second day of the annual convention of cotton oil men of the South, consisting principally of the Carolinas and Georgia, was brought to a close tonight with a banquet at a local hotel, over 400 participating. Augusta and Atlanta are trying for the 1917 convention. The election of officers will occur tomorrow, the closing day of the convention.

Yes, the Hon. T. W. Bickett is going to sweep the State of North Carolina on June 3. He is sure to be the next Governor of our State as we need a man like him, a friend to the poor man (raised a poor fatherless boy), a friend to the laboring man and a friend to the farmer. A big man, able and willing to lead the Democratic party of the State as no other can in times like these. Help the PARTY by casting your vote for Mr. Bickett.

Succeed in Entering French First Line Trenches, Between Douaumont and Vaux Pond.

ITALIANS HOLD POSITIONS

Rome Reports That the Austrians Are Unable to Make Further Advances in Tyrol.

TURKS ON THE OFFENSIVE

Russian Drive Toward Mesopotamia Checked for the Present.

The Germans have switched their offensive from the region of Le Mort Homme, northwest of Verdun, to the sector between Thiamont Farm and Vaux, northeast of the fortress, and have succeeded here in entering French first line trenches between Fort Douaumont and the Vaux Pond.

The attack was made over a front of about two miles, and was preceded by violent artillery preparation. The French met the German onslaughts with their machine guns, and succeeded in holding back the attacking forces everywhere except at the point between Fort Douaumont and the Vaux Pond. Heavy losses were inflicted on the Teutons, according to Paris.

Fighting Dwindled Considerably.

The heavy fighting around LeMort Homme and the Avocourt wood had dwindled to intermittent bombardments since the repulse of German attacks and the launching of a counter-attack by the French which gave them German trenches, 400 metres in extent southeast of LeMort Homme.

The activity of the artillery on the remainder of the front in France has also lessened in violence. In the Vosges mountains near Altricht the Germans report the occupation of French positions 350 metres long and about 350 metres deep and the capture of prisoners and booty.

Italians Hold Ground.

The Italians, according to Rome, continue to hold back attacks by the Austrians, at various points along the Tyrol front. Especially bitter fighting has taken place in the region of the Posina Torrent and southeast of Arsiero, where the Austrians either were stopped or driven back in disorder. Lively artillery duels ar ein progress in the Lagarina valley and between the Posina and the Upper Astico rivers.

Artillery engagements an dinfantry firing is in progress along the whole of the Russian front, but no changes in the positions of the Russians or the Teutons have been reported.

Turks Take Offensive.

The Turks taking the offensive at three points in Asia Minor agains the Russians have temporarily, at least, brought the Russian advance toward Mesopotamia to a standstill. All the Turkish attacks were repulsed, except at Mamakhatun, 50 miles west of Erzarum, which wa sevacuated by the Russians. Here the fighting was over a front of about twenty miles. Attempts by the Turks, who are said to be heavily reinforced by Austrians and Germans, to press back the Russians near Baiburt and Diarbekr failed.

That the Serbs, recently reported as having landed at Salonika now are on the entente allied front of the Greek-Serbia, is indicate dby the latest German official communication. The communication says a weak attack made by the entente at the southern end of Lake Doiran was repulsed and that northeast of the Lake Serbians wearing British uniform were taken prisoner.

CONFIDENT RAILROAD WAGE DISPUTE WILL BE SETTLED.

First Joint Conference Between Railroads and Employees Held.

New York, June 1. — The first joint conference between representatives of the railroads of the United States and their conductors, trainmen, engineers and firemen for a settlement of the differences over the employees' working hours and wages, was begun here today in executive session. Both sides expressed confidence in an amicable adjustment.

"No outside arbitration" is the slogan of the employees, an answer to a suggestion that the questions at issue be given over to the decision of Federal Arbitrators in case the conference fails to agree.

EXPECT TO FLOAT THE FISHING BOAT AUSTIN

By Use of Two Iron Pontoons Brought From Philadelphia.

Capt. Potter Five Weeks Towing Them From Pennsylvania City—Mrs. Mary J. Irving Dies at Home of Capt. Bussells.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Southport, June 1.—The fishing smack, Thomas F. Austin, which, bound in, went ashore on a shoal on what is known as Middle Ground, some months ago, which was thought to be beyond hope of recovery, is now expected to be raised and brought to Wilmington for repairs that will put the smack again into service.

Capt. Leda D. Potter recently reached here from Philadelphia in his power boat Wild Cat, having in tow iron pontoons, each of 65 tons, that will be employed in raising the Austin, the work now going on being the sinking of chains under the smack, to which the pontoons on either side will be attached. Opening the seacocks of the pontoons they will be sunk closely under the boat, then with compressed air they will be pumped out, bringing the Austin to a position that will enable her to be taken to the marine railway for needed repairs.

When the Austin went ashore there was about three feet of water under the boat, this causing the fear that a wrecking boat could not get near, but the sea has cut out the quick sand, making the present depth 18 feet, enough for effective wrecking work.

Captain Potter with his tow of pontoons was five weeks and three days in making the trip from Philadelphia.

Death of Mrs. Irving.

At the home of her daughter, Mrs. J. F. Bussells, in this city, Mrs. Mary J. Irving departed this life yesterday evening, about 80 years of age, the immediate cause of her death being cancer. Mrs. Irving had been a visitor here for several years, coming the last time about a year ago, shortly afterwards having the misfortunate to fall and break her hip, this confining her closely to the house and adding to her sufferings, which she bore bravely.

There were no funeral services here, the remains being borne to the steamer Wilmington, friends of the family serving as pall bearers, going to Wilmington, and from there to the home of the deceased, Irvington, Va., where interment will be made .Mrs. Bussells accompanied the remains.

The sympathy of this entire community goes out to Mrs. Bussells and family in their bereavement.

SEPA GROTTO ORGANIZERS PATROL AND DRILL TEAM

Capt. E. A. Metts Selected as Head of Aggregation of Prophets.

The drill team and patrol of Sepa Grotto of the Mystic Order of the Veiled Prophets of the Enchanted Realm which wa sorganized a few days ago has already begun active work under the direction of Capt. E. A. Metts, who has been chosen as leader and director, and they promise to be in splendid shape by the time the next Ceremonial is held which will probably be held in July. More members will be added from time to time until the patrol numbers about 35.

Captain Metts was formerly commanding officer of the Wilmington Light Infantry while First Lieut. W. A. Whitney served as first sergeant in the Spanish American War and Second Lieut. F. M. Rivenbark saw service for six years in the United States Regular army. With these men in charge the drill team should undoubtedly be one of the best in the South and it is the intention of those composing it to make it so.

The patrol besides the officers has the following prophets enrolled: Dr. J. B. LeGwin, G. S. Morse, E. A. Palmgren, Dr. M. J. Carson, T. S. Bain, H. H. Spring, M. J. Colwell ,D. W. Loring, C. W. Mills, Dr. H. G. Dickie, L. C. Robertson, W. L. Fisher, P. B. Bell, Dr. W. C. Mebane, H. L. Taylor, J. F. Clowe.

BEGIN LAYING TARVIA.

Mr. W. H. Tonrison and Assistants Start Work Today on Turnpike.

Mr. W. H. Tourison, of the Barrett Manufacturing Company, and his assistants, Messrs. E. K. Brinton, William Robertson and Mr. McFall, arrived yesterday and will today begin the application of Tarvia on Wrightsville turnpike, south of Winter Park. It will require several weeks to complete the laying of the material as the Masonboro and Castle Haynes roads are also to be treated. The work will be done under the general supervision of Chairman W. A. McGirt and Road Superintendent R. A. Burnett.

The material will be applied with a thousand gallon automobile pressure distributor, which makes it possible to do the work quite rapidly. Automobilists and others traveling over the highways are requested to beaer in mind the places where work is being done and to avoid them.

If Too Fat Get More Fresh Air

BE MODERATE IN YOUR DIET AND REDUCE YOUR WEIGHT. TAKE OIL OF KOREIN.

Lack of fresh air it is said weakens the oxygen carrying power of the blood, the liver becomes sluggish, fat accumulates and the action of many of the vital organs are hindered thereby. The heart action becomes weak, work is an effort and the beauty of the figure is destroyed.

Fat put on by indoor life is unhealthy and if nature is not assisted in throwing it off, a serious case of obesity may result.

When you feel that you are getting too stout, take the matter in hand at once. Don't wait until your figure has become a joke and your health ruined through carrying around a burden of unsightly and unhealthy fat.

Spend as much time as you possibly can in the open air; breathe deeply, and get from Elvington's Pharmacy or any druggist a box of oil of korein capsules; take one after each meal and one before retiring at night.

Weigh yourself every few days and keep up the treatment until you are down to normal. Oil of korein is absolutely harmless, is pleasant to take, helps the digestion and even a few days treatment has been reported to show a noticeable reduction in weight.

ACCEPT ROAD TO BEACH

Commissioners Make Settlement With Contractors for Highway to Southern Part of County.

The Board of County Commissioners in special session yesterday at noon formally accepted the seven-mile stretch of improved highway which has been built from the Federal Point road to Carolina Beach, a distance of about seven miles, and made the final settlement with Mr. R. C. Humphrey, the contractor. This road is later to be extended through Wilmington Beach to Fort Fisher Sea Beach, a distance of some two miles, the beach companies to pay the cost of this work.

The road to Carolina Beach was constructed for a part of the distance with Lillington gravel, the remainder of the distance being built with New Hanover shell rock. When treated with a top dressing, as it is hoped to do in the near future, the highway will be one of the most permanent in the county.

The final settlement with the contractor was for $32,684.22, half of which was paid by the county and the other by the three beach companies. A deduction of about $75 was made because of about 250 feet of the road not being up to the standard. Accepting the road for the beach interests were: Messrs. C. C. Chadbourn and L. W. Davis, for the Wilmington Beach Corporation; Mr. A. W. Pate for the New Hanover Transit Company, Mr. J. H. Hinnant and L. C. Kure for the Fort Fisher Sea Beach Company and for the commissioners Chairman McGirt and Messrs. Yopp and MacMillan.

MISS LOUISE WORTH BECOMES A MOTION PICTURE STAR.

Will Make Her Initial Appearance in Play, "Uncle Sam's Navy."

Unknown to but few of her intimate friends in the city, Miss Louise Worth, the beautiful young daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Worth, of Wilmington, and a niece of Hon. Josephus Daniels, Secretary of the Navy, has become a motion picture star. Miss Worth, who was engaged by the Thanhouser Mutual Studios several months ago, after negotiations extending over several weeks, will make her premier appearance as a cinema player in "For Uncle Sam's Navy," a two part drama, says the Mutual Film News, issued last week.

"Miss Worth's desire to enter studio work," says The News, "not only received the hearty endorsement of her uncle, but he was in a large way responsible for her engagement by the Thanhouser-Mutual forces. Her absence from Wilmington, which has been commented on frequently by persons who did not know that she had come to New York to accept a film engagement, will be fully explained in this announcement.

"For her first effort as a film star, Miss Worth was cast for the leading part in a stirring drama of the navy, an exceptionally appropriate production, because of her familiarity with the many details of Uncle Sam's sea forces. The picture deals with the invention of a new gun and the continued efforts of a band of foreign spies to steal its secret. Miss Worth, as the dauntless young daughter of the secretary, not only brings about the expose of the spies but their arrest as well.

"'I have long sought to fit myself for some profession,' Miss Worth declared recently, 'and finally accepted the screen as my choice. Just what success I will make of it remains to be seen. I have long been interested in theatrical work, as an amateur of course, but had no idea of joining the ranks of the picture players until the offer was made me by the Thanhouser-Mutual forces'."

It is understood—conceded—that Mr. Herbst will be one of the three new county commissioners. People are already congratulating the county on their anticipated choice, as it is certain that New Hanover will have good roads, extended at a minimum cost. No one will take more interest in the needs of the county than Mr. Herbst and no one will come nearer taking care of the tax-payers' money than he.

TANLAC HAS DONE MORE THAN I HAD EXPECTED FROM IT

Says Castle Street Lady---Operation and Medicine Failed to Help Her During Long Sufferings--Now Feels Different Person.

Mrs. T. Alex Croom, who resides at 506 Castle street, Wilmington, made a statement a few days ago that will be no surprise to the great many friends and neighbors who have noticed a gradual change for the better in her health during the past few weeks.

"Tanlac has made me feel an entirely different person after suffering for years from a general run-down condition and other troubles peculiar to women," said Mrs. Croom to the Tanlac Man, "and it's no wonder, for anybody who saw me in my run-down condition could keep from seeing the change and talking about it.

"I underwent one operation and was advised to undergo another. I was almost a nervous wreck, and suffered loss of weight and severe pains which, at times, made it so that I could hardly get around. I had taken many medicines for years without gaining a particle. Then friends recommended Tanlac to me, and I took to it.

"I feel much better now, an improvement I have not enjoyed in years. I can truthfully say that the three bottles of Tanlac I have taken have given me much greater relief than I had ever expected. It has increased my weight, I can do my housework better than ever, sleep well, and I am not near as nervous as formerly.

"I am continuing on Tanlac, and am positive that the full course of six bottles will effect a permanent cure for me."

It might be added that Mrs. Croom is among the first of Wilmington ladies to publicly express her appreciation of Tanlac's benefits.

People who suffer from stomach and liver ills, kidney derangements, catarrh of the head, nose, throat and stomach, nervousness, blood impurities, loss of sleep and appetite, lack of energy, rheumatism, headaches, nausea, sluggishness and a general run-down in health, will find Tanlac beneficial as a reconstructive tonic. Ask your neighbor about it, or learn of its merits from the Tanlac Man, at the Bellamy Drug Store, where the Master Medicine is sold exclusively in Wilmington.

C. L. Halstead sells Tanlac in Burgaw, and Watson's Pharmacy in Southport. There is a Tanlac druggist in every town.—adv.

Wrightsville Beach

June is here and the season for the beach begins.

And what is so rare as a day in June—at the beach?

Moving has been very much in order during the week.

The majority of the cottages at the beach are now occupied. Others are moving down daily.

Mr. C. D. Maffitt and family have moved from the city to t heir cottage at the beach for the summer.

Mr. H. E. Bonitz and family moved down to the beach yesterday and are occupying their cottage, No. 106 Lumina avenue.

Capt. P. H. Uberroth, the popular commanding officer of the United States coast guard cutter Seminole, and his family will go down to the beach today. They will be with Mr. and Mrs. Cuthbert Martin at their cottage, No. 126 Lumina avenue.

Yesterday's Charlotte Observer: "Miss Mary Brockenbrough, of this city, and Miss Nell Battle, of Montgomery, Ala., will be among the guests attending the house party given by Miss Margaret Bridgers, of Wilmington, at Wrightsville Beach. Miss Battle has had a kindergarten class at Chapel Hill and will go to Wrightsville from there. Miss Brockenbrough, and Miss Margaret Reese will leave for Wrightsville this afternoon."

MEETS UNTIMELY DEATH.

Nephew of Mrs. G. G. Thomas, of This City, Drowned at Louisburg.

Dr. and Mrs. G. G. Thomas and their son, Mr. G. G. Thomas, Jr., have returned from Louisburg, where they were called on account of the sad death of Mr. Joseph J. Davis, a nephew of Mrs. Thomas, who was drowned Monday near that place. The funeral was held at Louisburg on Wednesday afternoon and was attended by a large concourse of sorrowing friends. The pall-bearers were classmates of the young man, who had just graduated from the A. & M. College at Raleigh.

Mr. Davis was a son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert H. Davis and was only 21 years old. His family is one of the most prominent in that section of the State, his grandfather, Hon. Joseph J. Davis, having served in Congress and later on the Supreme Court bench of the State. He was held in the highest esteem by all who knew him. His untimely end brought great sorrow and was particularly sad because he was just entering upon a career that promised great usefulness.

CONCERNING MR. GODWIN

To the Voters of the Sixth Congressional District:

It is said that the power of right thinking has produced the greatest work of art, science and literature. The same rule applies to the voters of the Sixth District. Let each and every voter think and act for the best interest of his party, before casting his vote.

The Democrats of the Sixth Congressional District, should demand as their leader in Congress and the great contest of 1916 a man of intellect, a man of integrity, a man of well known and approved political opinion. They should demand a statesman, and a politician in the highest and broadest, and best sense of that word.

They should demand a man acquainted with the public affairs, with the wants of the people, with not only the requirements of the hour, but with the demands of the future. They should demand a man well versed in the power, duties and prerogatives of each and every department of this government. The man who has in full practice and unbounded measures all of these splendid qualifications is the present grand and gallant leader of the Sixth Congressional district, Hon. H. L. Godwin.

There are several candidates seeking Mr. Godwin's seat in Congress, and giving the people various reasons for their actions. I am afraid some of them are more anxious to defeat Mr. Godwin than they are to serve the people. A public office is a public trust and was created for service, and not simply to give every man a position. There are always more candidates seeking an office than there are offices to be filled. It is simply impossible to send every man to Congress, that may seek the office.

The question for the voters of the Sixth District to consider, is which one of the candidates, in their minds, can render the greatest service to their constituents. Mr. Champ Clark answered this question in his speach before the sixty-fourth Congress. He says the standing of a public servant depends on the length of time he serves and the fidelity to his people. He also says it is unwise performance for any district to change their congressman at short intervals. A new congressman must begin at the foot and spell up, and as you know it takes time and service. Mr. Godwin with his 10 years of experience in Congress, over the other candidates and his acquaintance there, we know that he stands in much better position to render a greater service to his district than we could expect of a new man.

Mr. Clark also in his speech before Congress, referred to Uncle Joe Cannon and others, as holding the most responsible places, both in the Senate and in Congress. He says, go through the whole list and you will find, with few exceptions, that the men of long service have filled the high places. Take Uncle Joe Cannon for an example, the Republican party kept him in Congress forty years, and there never was a man in public office that wielded more influence than he.

The Republicans rarely believed in concentration, if you cannot reduce the fort of your enemy by concentrating your power in one place, you will never take the fort by scattering it. Take if you please, the past record of the Republican party, they never change their national officeholders, they are changed only by their enemy, the Democratic party. President Lincoln said that it was unwise to swap horses in the middle of the river, which applies to Congressmen as well as Presidents.

That has been one defect in the Democratic party; they change their national office-holders too often. We allow him to occupy a national seat just long enough to be of service to his district and to his party. Just at the time when he has been appointed to some very important position, and ready to concentrate his power against the enemy and to the point where he can serve his people to their best interest, some new man will bob up, and declare that he is the only man that can fill the job.

In looking over the record of some of the candidates that are seeking Mr. Godwin's seat, I find some of them have never filled an office in his own county, much less the State. Yet the same parties are canvassing the district and denouncing the public record of Mr. Godwin. You remember W. W. Kitchin used the same method of prosecuting against Mr. Simmons in the senatorial race, and the result was that he was defeated to the extent of fifty thousand votes. Both the record of Mr. Simmons and Mr. Godwin stands as an opened book for the public to examine at will. Judging from his record, I cannot believe that the Democrats of the Sixth District will be deceived into a change just at the time when a wave of prosperity is sweeping our country, from ocean to ocean, just in order to gratify the ambition of a few office seekers.

Mr. Godwin stands on his past and present record, and should you examine it without prejudice, you will see that he has done more efficient work for his district than any other man that has occupied the seat, not because he is any more competent, but simply because he has occupied the seat long enough to be recognized as one of the leading congressmen of North Carolina. For the people of the Sixth District to desert this gallant man now would as though an army should desert their general on the battle field. Mr. Godwin is now and has been for the last ten years the sacred standard bearer of the Democratic party of the Sixth Congressional District.

We ask you in the name of Democracy, and on the behalf of the Democratic party, when the time comes for you to cast your vote, rally to the standard of your party and vote for the man that has carried the flag of Democracy for twelve years safely through the halls of Congress, and one up to the present time is a total stranger to defeat. That man is the Honorable H. L. Godwin.

LEE GREER.

THE CANDIDACY OF M. L. SHIPMAN

Endorsed For Re-Election by Local and District Organizations

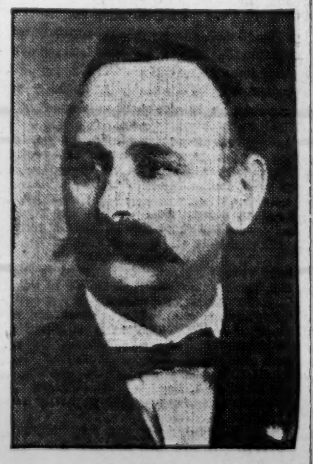

(News and Observer, Nov. 14, 1915.)

The undersigned respectfully present the name of Mr. M. L. Shipman as a candidate to succeed himself as Commissioner of Labor and Printing. He is serving his second term, and we have heard only the highest praise of the manner in which he has conducted the affairs of the department. Wherever duty called, Mr. Shipman has shown himself equal to the occasion, and his actions have brought honor to the State and credit to himself. That he has double increased the usefulness of the department is generally admitted. There appears little, if any, sentiment, to displace him, and we wish merely to advise his friends that he will appreciate their support for re-election.

Mr. Shipman has not only made a capable official during the six and a half years of his incumbency in the position, but he has also long been an effective party worker, both as editor and county and district chairman. We appreciate his fighting qualities up here in the mountains and want to see him more adequately rewarded for the splendid service he has rendered the Democratic party and for his constant devotion to duty in the office he now so competently fills. He needs no introduction to the people of North Carolina, and we feel that our knowledge of their sense of justice warrants the sincere belief that Commissioner Shipman will be nominated by an overwhelming majority to succeed himself.

We believe it would be a serious mistake, from a business standpoint for the State, to retire Mr. Shipman at a time when he is best fitted to serve the people, and hope his numerous friends in various sections of the commonwealth will see to it that his interests are thoroughly protected.

PORTSMOUTH TAKES OPENER FROM ROCKY MOUNT TEAM.

Rocky Mount, N. C., June 1.—With pitchers going at a great clip and the score tied often until the eighth, the Champs staged a comedy of errors and Portsmouth took the opening game here by a score of 7 to 3. There was hardly an advantage that might have been claimed for any of the four pitchers called to the pinnacle, each club using two, but the miscues of the Champs told the story of their defeat.

Pope started the game for the locals, but was relieved in the fourth with a one-run lead in his favor, but with the bases choked and three balls on the hitter who a moment later walked sending in the tieing run. It went this way until the seventh when Talbot hit out of the park for a one-run lead. In the eighth, however, Portsmouth was liberally helped by several rank errors and some dumb fielding and King finally doubled, sending three runners across. This was a lead that the opposing club never gave the locals a look-in at tieing, though in the last session after Parmelee had doubled Pearson was yanked in favor of Wood. Portsmouth added one more run in the ninth on a two base hit followed by a single.

CLARKTON WINS CLOSE GAME FROM FAST WHITEVILLE NINE

Clarkton, N. C., June 1.—The Clarkton baseball team, with a good crowd of supporteds, journyed over to Whiteville this afternoon and won one of the best games of the season from the fast Whiteville nine. The game was a pitchers' battle between Cromartie for Clarkton and Hickman for Whiteville. The game was uncertain until the last ball was pitched in the ninth inning. Final score was three to four. Feature of the game was the all round good playin gof both teams.

CHOOSING A CONGRESSMAN.

Out of some half dozen candidates in the field, the Sixth district will be called on next Saturday week to choose a Congressman. Against the personal character or public record of any of these candidates, perhaps nothing very harmful can be said. Of course, those of them who have held public office have incurred the disfavor of certain of the voters, for no man can stir from his lair of private seclusion without making some enemies. All of these half dozen candidates are men deserving well of their people, and some of them might make excellent congressmen.

But there is one candidate among them about whom there is no uncertainty. He is tried. He has been tested by the acid test of experience. He has served his apprenticeship and become familiar with the duties of the office. In capacity to serve the District, he has the important advantage of being already trained to his work. He has won the standing that time alone brings.

Moreover, he has made a faithful congressman. Even the enemies of Godwin will not attempt to assert that he has not "been on the job." The interests of the Sixth District have been his daily thought, and for his district he has worked with a watchfulness that must be pleasing and acceptable to those who, as with the great majority of the voters, demand nothing of their public officials but good service. He has not catered to this faction or that, he has not been led around by the apron strings of this or that prominent man, but he has been faithful to the rank and file of his district. The masses stand with Godwin.

But he has not confined himself to getting "pork" for the Sixth District. That he has got a fair share of financial aid for his district is not to his discredit. This aid was merited, and it is to his credit that he has been able to get it. But he has stood true on all great national issues that have come before Congress during the past two or three years. He has stood loyally behind all those great measures that Woodrow Wilson has recommended to Congress. He has accepted the leadership of the President because he believed the things the President has stood for, and also because he believes that the only way for the Democratic party to hold together is to recognize a leader and follow him. Godwin has never, like some of our other congressmen, found himself on the wrong band wagon, and had to shift position. He has had the wisdom to chose right in the first instance when the issue was presented. And that he has been able to do so among the many perplexing problems that have been presented to Congress within the past two or three troublous years, is a monument to his sound judgment.

For sheer ability to steer clear of pitfalls and to choose the right side of the issue, on every occasion, no North Carolina congressman has been more successful than Godwin. While Hon. Claude Kitchin, with all his astuteness and with his long experience, has been tangled in the meshes of his mistakes and confusion, and while Hon. Robert N. Page has got lost in the fogs of the national problems pressing on Congress and thrown up his seat in despair, H. L. Godwin has steered straight ahead, without hesitation or loss of direction, and stands today in full working harmony with the plans and purposes of the Democratic party, and a real asset to the President and to the party in Congress.

With an experienced man with a record so clean already representing them, the voters of the District should, and, we believe, will have but little difficulty in deciding whom they will support on the third day of June. Godwin deserves by every sign to win.

Godwin Replies to Lumberton Tribune Strictures

Dunp, N. C., June 1, 1916.
To The Morning Star, Wilmington, N.C.

My attention has been called to the article appearing in the Lumberton Tribune, of May 24th, 1916, which are being circulated by the allied candidates against me. The editor of The Tribune has made very various attempts at the newspaper business, first at Clarkton, without success; next at Rowland with same result, and now at Lumberton, where he announced a few weeks ago the suspension of his paper. Suddenly, however, he has become able to resume publication of the suspended Tribune apparently for the sole purpose of publishing false articles against my record. He first became vicious toward me because I told the truth about the record of Senator Simmons, and is now as then, using the false statements compiled by the editor of Collier's Weekly, a Republican journal.

With these articles he has allowed himself to be made the cat's paw of the candidates opposing me who are now circularizing the district with his false statements, at a time when they know it is too late for me to answer and place these articles in their true light.

They say that during the 63rd Congress there were 67 roll calls and I missed 30. I hold a telegram just received from Speaker Clark, stating that the House journal shows 457 roll calls during that Congress, a wide difference between the figures of the House journal and those of The Tribune.

They charged that I missed several important roll calls, which is untrue. I voted several times on the illiteracy test of the immigration bill and twice to pass over the vetoes of two Presidents.

I have voted for Federal aid to good roads, and this year, I helped to pass a bill through the House to provide the sum of $25,000,000 for good roads.

I have voted for all important anti-trust legislation that has been considered in the House during my service.

I have voted not only for the naval appropriation bills, but for the entire preparedness proposition of the administration. I did not vote for the child labor bill, but was present and voted against it as did all other Congressmen from my State save one.

They say that my absence last week when the shipping bill was voted for in the House, caused great discomfiture to Majority Leader Kitchin. It is true I was absent last week, but before leaving Washington Leader Kitchin arranged for me to pair with Representative Gardner, of Massachusetts, and gave his full consent for me to return to the district.

The voters of the district know that I have never engaged in a campaign of mud-slinging and I feel satisfied that they will at next Saturday's primary rebuke the method of the opposition.

TOP O' THE MORNING.

Take these virtues that give you such self-satisfaction, one by one, and ask yourself at what sacrifice, labour, or cost, about all with what care you have managed to acquire them. —C. M. YONGE.

If you doubt the propriety of letting your wife go with you, stay at home with her.

Dr. Waite, who poisoned his father-in-law and mother-in-law, declares that he wants to die in the electric chair. We don't know of any one who cares to object.

Some things that are not stealing in the eyes of the law are so dishonorable that a high toned gentleman would let somebody else do it and get every cent of the money.

The last time Roosevelt proclaimed party allegiance he was a Progressive denouncing the Republican party and doing the work that defeated it. When did he become a Republican again?

Our idea of a hopeless and despairing task is to apologize for what the Republican party has done to North Carolina every dad-burned chance it got. We have to judge a party by what it practices contrary to what it gliby preaches.

Don't ever put a fellow onto a scheme to squeeze some money out of your friend if he will pay well for doing it. If you do you are no friend to your friend. What your friend would call you would not be fit to repeat to your lady friends.

A correspondent writes to a metropolitan paper to know how he can keep flies from disturbing his sleep early in the morning. We do not intend to be officious at all, but the best rule we know is to get up early and put all the flies to sleep.

Roosevelt declares his purpose in going west to make speeches was that he wanted to say something for preparedness. However, everybody knows that his unmentioned purpose was to get in the limelight and keep in it till the Chicago convention decides on a nominee for president. He can't fool Hughes about it.

They blame so many things on President Wilson that he does not even attempt to deny them. He has an idea that the people won't believe a one of the campaign lies that some men are telling. When some campaigners make a statement nobody believes it unless they can prove their own reputation for neutrality and veracity.

Justice Hughes and Colonel House could say a lot of things but they won't say a word, because they know that people will attribute unusual importance to what they say. That isn't the case with other men who are running around talking through their hats and have nothing more in them than what makes an automobile tire appear to be fat.

Says the Springfield Republican: "The public will be surprised to learn that there are still 3,000 Americans in Mexico." If you would believe some people in this country, it would be impossible for Americans to live in Mexico. Anyhow, if there are 3,000 Americans in Mexico, why don't they come on home so we could have at least that many Americans in the United States instead of pro-Teutons, proAllies and professionals?

Will the Republicans in their national convention nominate for president a man who does not even claim to be a Republican? If so, why not nominate Wilson and thus make it practically unanimous. Also, if so, then under what obligations are the rank and file of the Republican voters to support the nominee of the convention? If they are going to vote for a man who does not even claim to be a Republican, why should they not just as well vote for a Democrat—Wilson, for instance?

ARE WE FORWARD LOOKING?

While the citizens of Wilmington will vote in the State-wide nominating primary tomorrow and have a voice in nominating their officials as well as the right to elect them in November, thus placing both the nomination and election of officials strictly in the hands of the people, the qualified voters of this city also will have the opportunity to vote in a special city election to decide the questions of underwriting the projected manufacturing suburb, the extension of the waterworks system in the southern part of the city, the necessary purchase of additional fire fighting apparatus and the proposed improvement of Princess street from Tenth to Seventeen streets.

These are four vital matters involving the progress of Wilmington, and one voter is just as much interested as another, while one voter's ballot will be just as helpful or hurtful to Wilmington as another's. All are equally interested in seeing Wilmington grow, because of the strong reason that the development of the city will afford opportunities for either employment or investment for every man and woman in the city. Without development there would be nothing doing for either, so we can either vote for or vote against opportunities for ourselves.

Inasmuch, however, as we expect to live here and either do business or get employment here, we ought to regard it as a duty to ourselves as well as to our city to vote for all four of Wilmington's progress propositions tomorrow. If we anxiously desire to make progress, we will surely have to decide to go ahead. We cannot make progress by standing still, hence, to expect to develop Wilmington without doing something to bring about the city's development would be like the folly of the man who had an idea that he could lift himself over the fence by pulling on both straps of his boots.

People who do things are those who take the initiative and those who lend their co-operation by approving the things necessary to be done to make a city. It requires earnest good will and active encouragement on the part of everybody to give effect to the work of those who take the initiative. When we get up steam, fire has to do the heating while the water has to do the boiling before power is available to make something go. We observe, therefore, that it takes more than one element to create the force by which the machinery is set to humming.

Every man in Wilmington, rich and poor, can make himself an element in the progress and development of Wilmington. The man with the money and the moneyless man with the vote are the two elements to be depended upon in tomorrow's election. Both have the same voting power and each can vote for or against Wilmington at tomorrow's election.

We cannot go wrong in voting for progress, because it means voting for ourselves and the city that we hope to make for ourselves. Wilmington can be only what all of us make it, and by the clearest of all logic, Wilmington cannot make us if we do not make it. That ought to be plain to every working man and every moneyed man who constitute the citizen element in our city. Opportunity knocks at the door of men who do not knock opportunity.

In tomorrow's election we can do four things for Wilmington, and we can reasonably expect that Wilmington will do as many things for us if we will only give her the chance to develop. Are we forward looking enough to vote for our best interests? When again will we get the chance to do something for ourselves? We have to answer to and for ourselves.

INCREASE IN COTTON ACREAGE

According to a special committee of the Chamber of Commerce of the United States, the cotton acreage this season will be increased from 15 to 20 per cent. over last year's acreage. The report is made by A .W. Douglas, of St. Louis, chairman of the committee, the report of which has been synopsized in an article in Wednesday's New York Journal of Commerce.

Despite the great increase in acreage this year, the committee declares there cannot be expected an equal increase in the total production. It contends that large yields of all agricultural staples depend more upon the production per acre than upon the total acreage. Reports throughout the cotton belt indicate conditions diametrically opposite to those of a year ago. The high price of cotton prevailing for some months past stimulated planting this spring.

The general feeling among the cotton planters and farmers seems to be, according to what the National Chamber committee says, that since the cotton industry lived through a cataclysm such as the European war it can stand any turn of fortune. Furthermore, it is pointed out that with the coming of peace there must be renewed demand for cotton products. Hence, the planters figured it was safe and wise once more to put in a larger acreage.

This acreage varies greatly in different sections of the country, being influenced to a large extent by the weather prevailing at the time of planting. The increase is heavy in Oklahoma, Texas, Arkansas, Mississippi and Alabama, in the order named, and in certain sections of other states, as in portions of Louisiana and North Carolina. This is said to mean that in the central South and Southwest the conditions were more favorable during the spring than in the South Atlantic states from Virginia to Florida, where the season was reported abnormally cool and dry. The conclusion of the committee is that in these latter states the acreage is considerably less than west of the Allaghany mountains.

A further influence in the South Atlantic States, the committee reports, is to be found in the very great scarcity of fertilizers, which are much more essential in these states in the raising of cotton than in the cotton belt further west. In 1915 the use of fertilizers in the cotton-growing States was about 40 per cent. less than in 1914, and this year there is a still further decrease of about 25 per cent. less than in 1915. It was pointed out that this means a decrease in production per acre, especially in the South Atlantic states and portions of Alabama and Arkansas, which of late have grown to use fertilizers in large measure. Trouble was reported in some of the states west of the Mississippi river in getting good seed. With but few local exceptions, the committee states, the acreage devoted to grains and forage of all kinds this year in the South is as large as a year ago, which in turn was a record-breaking season.

"The general condition of being self-contained, of raising grains for its needs, both for man and beast—a condition brought by the boll weevil invasion and the effect of the European war—seems now to have crystalized into a habit," the report goes on. "The Southern farmer and planter has found from experience that the cheapest way to raise cotton is first to raise enough grain for the sustenance of his family, his flocks and herds and then it is entirely wise in an economic way to plant all the cotton he can take care of."

The planting of other products—grains and forage—has taken new directions in portions of Oklahoma and particularly in northern Texas, where the peanut industry has become of great local moment, according to the committee. Not only is there a demand for the oil for fine salad purposes, but the cake is used for food for live stock and the plant itself for fodder. There is also the consequent enrichment of the soil by innoculation with nitrogen from the air. Sudan grass, a sure forage crop under most trying conditions of heat and drouth, finds increasing favor in the eyes of the Oklahoma farmers, with consequent increased acreage. In eastern Arkansas alfalfa is a familiar sight, where twenty years ago it was almost unknown. This is true in large measure of many sections of Mississippi.

"There is more live stock today—cattle and hogs—in the South, more poultry of all kinds, more dairy cows than for a great many years," the committee says finally. "The sinister and forbidding situation which ushered in 1915 has been completely transformed by the common sense and intelligence displayed, the self-denial practiced and the fortitude shown by the Southern people. Agricultural and consequently all industrial and commercial interests throughout the Soupthern States are upon a surer and more solid foundation than ever before in the history of the country."

A LIVESTOCK ASSOCIATION

Now that Wilmington has decided to organize a $200,000 packing house corporation, we ought to organize the Eastern Carolina livestock association as one of the essentials for the success of the packing house industry. With a livestock market in Wilmington assured, we can more rapidly promote the growth of hog and cattle raising and invite attention to other meat animals as well. The country needs better breeds and more hogs and cattle within the next twelve months. In order to arouse the farmers to the advantage of that phase of the livestock industry, there is nothing so effective as a live association in which the farmers and all persons interested can have membership.

Through a livestock association the farmers can also learn the best system for growing hogs and cattle at the lowest possible cost and with the minimum of care and attention. The question of proper feeding and handling of different kinds of farm animals is important as a matter of economy, while grain and forage production and all-year grazing are necessary as economic features on the farm. There are also other crops that enter into the economy, while the silo is a prime factor in saving as well as cheaply handling feed crops in the succulent shape so necessary in producing good beef, pork, butter, milk, etc.

We may as well make a kindred system of the packing house and livestock industries. We can organize a livestock association while we are raising the capital stock for the packing house, and pending the latter's establishment we can and should make our livestock industry grow. All counties desiring to enter the association can do so. If we mean business we may as well handle it at both ends.

The way to tell whether it were honorable to collect repudiated bonds out of your State by hook or crook for the benefit of bondholders who are no kin to us, is to ask your mother, wife or sister if they would help you to concoct a scheme by which you could pull a little filthy lucre out of your state. If they would refuse to be a party to it, it is a sign that no lady would be caught doing such a trick. When a man does something and can't brag to a preacher about doing it, he knows he's got something on himself. At the same time, however, who has been trying to collect bonds from North Carolina in a roundabout, devious and un-Carolinian kind of way?

From now on don't believe a ding-dong word you hear, unless President Wilson confirms it in a speech.

Wilson, N. C., June 1.—Reports from the county indicate the best crop prospect in many years. Corn, tobacco and cotton are above the average. The acreage in tobacco is slightly above 1915 and the stand is muc hbetter. There is little increase in the acreage of cotton but a considerable increase in corn.

CURRENT COMMENT

An Asheville dispatch to the Greensboro News carrying an exclusive story from Mr. Thomas Settle indicating the formation of plans to swing the North Carolina Republican vote in the Chicago convention to Roosevelt, believes it will come "in the nature of a shock to the stalwarts." We are not so sure about that. On the other hand, a close listener would be apt to hear some chuckling going on behind the scenes. It is more than likely that Settle is doing the very thing some of them were hoping for, and not so secretly, either.—Charlotte Observer.

Columbus Man's Strength in That Section Rapidly Increasing, is Report.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Red Springs, N. C., June 1.—Hon. J. A. Brown, of Chadbourn, prominent at home and throughout the district and decidedly one of the strongest candidates for Congress, spoke to a large audience here Wednesday. Mr. Brown was passing through and his speech was somewhat impromptu. While Mr. Brown was already strong here, his strength has been rapidly increasing in the last few days. Mr. Brown is and has been chairman of the Democratic executive committee of his county for 16 years.

Reports not only here but throughout Robeson county indicate that on next Saturday the voters will reward his Democracy by giving him a large vote. Brown men here are found among the political leaders and are confident their man will be the winner.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Rocky Mount, N. C., June 1.—Suffering injuries that it is feared may prove fatal as the result of being attacked by a bull yesterday, Mr. Coffield Knight, a prominent Whitakers merchant, was brought to a local hospital late yesterday for treatment. It happened that Mr. Knight, who is somewhat of an athlete, was passing through the lot and was in the act of opening the gate when the bull rushed at him and he stepped aside and grabbed him by his horns and a lively fight ensued. The man was finally thrown loose from his hold when he was caught against a stationary object in the lot and gored severely in th estomach. The infuriated animal then set about to stamp his victim and rushed over him several times inflicting other injuries and breaking his leg.

HEALTH IS WEALTH
by John B. Huber, A.M., M.D.

Better to hunt in fields for health unbought
Than fee the doctor for a nauseous draught.—DRYDEN.

Migraine

A NUMBER of readers of this column have written me about sick or bilious headache, the grim or blind headache; doctors call this migraine, and it is usually one-sided. This is really a constitutional trouble, most frequent, though by no means always so, in women. It may begin when boys and girls change into men and women. And yet even children as early as three years of age have been known to suffer from it. Members of nervous families, in which there is a hereditary tendency to gout, rheumatism, kidney trouble or epilepsy are liable; children overworked, especially in their school tasks, may complain of it. Auto-intoxication, indigestion, errors in refraction requiring reading glasses for the eyes, insomnia, shock, injury and exhausting diseases are causes of migraine.

The migraine sufferer for a few hours or a day feels the trouble coming on—she will feel depressed, generally out of sorts or downright miserable and unfit for work or anything else. Then, usually in the morning, on one side of the head, either in the forehead or at the back, pain will start, increasing in severity and extending until the whole head is affected. The pain is tense, throbbing, blinding, increased by jars, noises and lights. There may be dimness of vision, sometimes ability to see only a part of an object or of the surroundings; and there may be flashes of light, or light and dark spots dancing before the eyes. Generally there is nausea and often vomiting. There is a feeling of stupor, confusion of ideas, incapacity, disturbances of vision, vertigo and ringing in the ears. The sufferer is usually pale, rarely flushed. The attack lasts from 6 to 24 hours, sometimes for several days. Soon as the pain mitigates the patient goes to sleep, and is likely to awake the next morning feeling well. The attacks are likely to come on periodically—weekly, fortnightly or monthly.

In order to be able to cure migraine one has naturally got to find out in each case which one of the above mentioned causes is at the bottom of the trouble, and then to remove that cause. To this end a good doctor must be consulted. The attacks can be relieved by drugs; but there is great danger of forming dreadful habits. Any article of food that has been found to disagree must be avoided. A tablespoonful of Epsom salts in a tumblerful of hot water is good. Also hot tea, strong and with lemon juice. If drugs have to be used, eight grains of phenacetin may be taken, by an adult, every hour for three doses—if necessary.

EAR TROUBLE.

L. G. writes: My sister noticed an article about Chronic Deafness in your column; her case resembles in full about the same as there mentioned. Sick in the ear and nose about 20 years, with head noises roaring and hissing sounds, deaf in the left ear and hard of hearing in the right. She feels sleepy all the time, especially when head noises are on. She fears the danger of getting totally deaf or of breaking through the drum.

Answer: I omit the melancholy details in your letter; your sister is certainly entitled to the warmest sympathy. Her case, however, is a lesson which no reader should neglect to profit by—that of neglecting nose and throat catarrh, which are the main causes of deafness. As I wrote in my article to which you refer, cure is now impossible; but great relief is possible. Your sister should not abandon doctoring; but go to a good ear specialist, such as any family doctor will recommend, and follow his treatment faithfully. There is no danger of any doctor breaking through the ear drum by "blowing in the air pressure." Many people have broken ear drums and yet hear as well as their neighbors do.

ABNORMAL MILK.

Answer to M. D. P.: The secretion from the udders of cows for some days after the birth of the calf acts as a purgative and has a pungent odor and taste. It is called "colostrum" and is not fit for human food. The milk secreted for some weeks before the calf is born should also be rejected.

BROWN, OF COLUMBUS, SPEAKS IN WILMINGTON

Maj. Joseph W. Little Also Makes Address to Voters.

E. F. Young, Esq., of Dunn, Spends the Day in New Hanover—Interest Here Centered Upon the Congressional Race.

With three candidates for Congress actively and aggressively pushing their campaigns in Wilmington and New Hanover county yesterday, interest in this contest overshadowed the vigorous efforts being put forth by the candidates for the local county offices. Hon. J. A. Brown, of Columbus, addressed the voters of Wilmington at three places last night while Major Joseph W. Little spoke at a gathering also last evening. E. F. Young, Esq., of Dunn, spent the day in the county but did not make any addresses, his efforts being confined to seeing his friends and talking over the situation personally.

With but a single day before the primary remaining, the candidates for all offices will be actively engaged today in making their final appeals for votes. No engagements to speak at any point in the city were announced last night and it is probable that there will be few if any addresses made today.

Hon. J. A. Brown, of Columbus, candidate for Congress, spent the afternoon in the city yesterday and last night made three addresses at as many places in the city, being heard at each appointment by good crowds of his friends and others interested in the congressional race.

Returning from several speeches in Robeson county Mr. Brown was unable to give more than a short notice of his appointments in this county but at each place there gathered a number of voters who listened with interest to what he had to say. The first appointment was in Delgado, where Mr Brown spoke and was followed by several of the county candidates. The speech was from the platform of the company store and his audience included a number of Sixth ward voters other than operatives of the mill.

From Delgado Mr. Brown came to Fifth and Castle streets, where he spoke from in front of the engine house there. He was introduced by Mr. C. C. Covington and spoke for less than an hour, reviewing briefly the record of Congressman Godwin and defining what he thought should be the qualifications for a Congressman stressing the importance of such an office, especially at the present time and pledging himself to faithful, conscientious and intelligent effort in the event he is nominated and elected. He spoke of the needs of proper rural credits legislation and drew a splendid picture of the industrial and agricultural development that ought to follow in the South. He paid his respects to those who would debauch the electorate for personal gain and promised the voters that if such were necessary for his success in the present race, he would go down in defeat.

He asked the closest investigation of his public and private record and expressed his high appreciation of any support that might be given him by the voters of New Hanover.

At 9 o'clock, driving across town hurriedly in an automobile, he addressed a number of voters of the First Ward at Fifth and Brunswick street, using the front porch of a dwelling in process of construction there as a platform.

At each appointment Mr. Brown personally met many of the voters and the opportunity for a judicious distribution of literature favorable to his candidacy was not overlooked. Many of the county candidates were present at the several meetings, "circulating" among the crowds and bestowing a handshake here and there, among the sovereign people of the respective wards.

Major Little was greeted by a good sized crowd at Front and Market streets last evening and made a strong appeal for votes, especially the young men present. He briefly outlined the policies for which he stands, laying particular stress upon the necessity of securing drainage through Federal aid in Eastern North Carolina, and then discussed at some length Congressman Godwin's record. He spoke for nearly a hour and was given the closest attention by those present. He was frequently applauded and was given an ovation at the close of his address.

Mr. Young after spending the day in the country returned to the city last night. He will go to Pembroke in Robeson county this morning and will spend the day in that section, returning to Dunn tonight in order to be at home for the primary. Mr. Young is making no boasts but expresses the greatest satisfaction with the outlook for his success. That there will be a second primary is evident, he says, and he expresses the hope that he may be one of the men who will be in it. He has been in New Hanover nearly all the week and has met and talked with a great number of people.

SUPT. BLAIR STILL HERE

Head of Wilmington Schools Will Go Home Next Week—To Teach Art.

Mr. John J. Blair, superintendent of the Wilmington city schools, is still in the city but expects to leave next week for his home at High Point, where he will spend some time. Mr. Blair will later go to the University of Virginia at Charlottesville, where he will teach art and architecture in the summer school. Mr. Blair was a member of the summer faculty at this institution last summer.

Mr. Blair has been busy since commencement rounding up things for the beginning of the new school term. The past year was the best in the history of the city school system and plans for increased efficiency are being made for next year.

Practically all of the out-of-town teachers have returned to their homes. Some of them will spend the summer in attendance at summer schools while others will spend it in resting.

It is understood—conceded—that Mr. Herbst will be one of the three new county commissioners. People are already congratulating the county on their anticipated choice, as it is certain that New Hanover will have good roads, extended at a minimum cost. No one will take more interest in the needs of the county than Mr. Herbst and no one will come nearer taking care of the tax-payers' money than he.

PRESBYTERIANS OF DELGADO

Church to be Organized on Sunday Afternoon by Commission Appointed by Presbytery.

The Delgado Presbyterian church will be organized formally on Sunday afternoon at 4:30 o'clock, the new church starting with a membership of 176 and a most encouraging outlook for still further growth among the enterprising people of that thriving village, the new organization giving place to the mission which has been conducted there for a number of years under the auspices of the First church of this city.

At the last meeting of Wilmington Presbytery at Winter Park a petition was sent in by the members of the Delgado congregation, requesting that they be set apart as an independent Presbyterian church and this was granted. The Presbytery appointed a commission composed of Rev. Dr. J. M. Wells, Rev. Dr. A. D. McClure, and Rev. A. J. Howell, and Ruling Elders J. A. Springer, James Sprunt and C. H. Robinson to organize the church. It was the past week decided to have the organization on Sunday afternoon and the order of exercises will be announced in a day or two.

The church has been a mission of the First church since January, 1906, when the present pastor, Rev. Andrew J. Howell, started it as a Sunday school. As members were received they were enrolled as members of the First church, but now as they have grown they will be an independent congregation under their own organization. Elders and deacons will be elected at the meeting for organization Sunday afternoon.

The church building was erected by the Delgado mill corporation some years ago and later the interior was remodeled and other improvements were made by Dr. James Sprunt, of this city, whose munificence is also shown in connection with the Marion Mission and kindergarten so successfully conducted there for a number of years and which is a great work in itself to this day.

The people of the village and the Presbytery are to be congratulated upon the work of organization they will undertake on next Sunday.

SERIES OF MEETINGS BEGIN AT CHRISTIAN CHURCH SUNDAY

Rev. Raleigh L. Topping Will Do the Preaching, Beginning Monday.

The first service of the protracted meeting at Dock Street Christian church will be held Sunday morning at 11 o'clock. The meetings will be conducted by Rev. Raleigh L. Topping, of Rosemary, N. C. Mr. Topping will arrive in the city Monday and will preach his first sermon Monday night. Rev. J. E. Reynolds, the pastor, will preach at both morning and evening services Sunday.

Rev. Mr. Topping is a splendid speaker and is sai dto have unusual ability as a teacher of the Bible. The Christian church feels fortunate in securing him to conduct the meetings. As an evangelist, Mr. Topping has been very successful and the church is confidently expecting one of the best meetings in its history.

The services each night will begin promptly at 7:45. A cordial invitation is extended to all the people of the city to attend all the meetings.

ROTARIANS MEET TODAY

Important Meeting to Be Held at Y. M. C. A. Today at 1 O'clock.

There will be an important special meeting of the Rotary club this afternoon at 1 o'clock. Every member is expected to attend as a matter of vital importance to the city is to be considered. The meeting will begin promptly at 1 o'clock.

MR. TIMOTHY DONLAN DEAD

Aged and Respected Citizen of Wilmington Passed Away Yesterday at Noon at Home in City.

For 60 years an honored and respected citizen of Wilmington, to which he came in his young manhood from his native country of Ireland, Mr. Timothy Donlan passed away yesterday at noon at his home, No. 120 North Third street, after having been in failing health for three years and seriously ill for ten weeks. He was in the 80th year of his age, having celebrated his 79th birthday last Christmas.

The funeral will be conducted tomorrow morning at 10 o'clock from St. Mary's Pro-Cathedral, of which he was the oldest member, the services being in charge of Rev. Father C. Dennen. The interment will be in Oakdale cemetery.

Mr. Donlan came to Wilmington in 1856 after having spent a few months in Connecticut following his arrival in this country from Ireland. In 1862 he was selected as superintendent of Oakdale cemetery and continued in this position until his death, having an unbroken service of 54 years in this one position. He took especial pride in making beautiful this cemetery and always gave to the cemetery the most careful and painstaking attention. During the past two years he had not been actively connected with the cemetery because of failing health but he did not lose interest in what was his life work.

Mr.Donlan was a charter member of the Hibernian Society, which was organized in Wilmington i n1867. He filled every official position in this organization and for the past eight years had been its honored president. He was the last surviving charter member of the old Howard Relief volunteer fire company, which in former days had a very active part in protecting Wilmington from fires. He was a member of the Knights of Columbus for many years and was greatly beloved by the members of that organization as well as by all who knew him.

Always of a modest and retiring nature, Mr. Donlan nevertheless took a very active interest in everything that pertained to the city's welfare and had a very important part in the growth and development of the community.

Surviving the deceased are his two daughters, Misses Mary A. and Kate Donlan, of this city, and a son, Mr. J. M. Donlan, of Rocky Mount, all of whom will have the tender sympathy of a host of friends in their bereavement.

TICKETS THAT VOTERS MUST CAST TOMORROW

Names of Candidates for State and County Offices.

Registrars and Judges in New Hanover Meet Board of Elections Today at Noon to Receive Ballots for Primary.

Voting in the primary to be held tomorrow will not be such an easy task in New Hanover, although no difficulty will be experienced by the man who takes time to do a little thinking. However, it will be well before hand to take a thought as to the procedure as there will be several ballots to be cast in order to vote for State, congressional and county offices. In Wilmington voters will have the additional task of voting for or against the proposed measures for improving the city.

The judges and registrars for the different precincts in New Hanover county will meet the Board of Elections today at noon to receive their allotment of ballots for the primary tomorrow. The tickets for the State and congressional elections are furnished by the State, while the county tickets have been arranged under the direction of the County Board of Elections. A strict record will be kept of all ballots distributed and while "dummies" may be distributed, only those furnished by the judges will be official.

The polls will open at sunrise and close at sundown. In this section this means that the judges will have to get up somewhat earlier than is their usual custom as the sun now rises at 5 o'clock. According to official Washington time it will set at 7:20 o'clock, which will give 14 hours and 20 minutes for voting.

For the city election in Wilmington there will be four tickets to be voted, one for the proposed manufacturing suburb, one for the Princess street improvement, one for the extension of the waterworks system and one for the providing of additional equipment for the fire department. The voter will cast his vote for or against each of these propositions, if he desires to take part in the city election.

In the primary, there will be three different tickets for the Democratic party, one for the State officers, one for the congressional office and one for the county offices. These ballots will be cast in separate boxes. While the State and congressional ballots will be voted in accordance with the State legalized primary rules, the county primary is under the Australian ballot system, New Hanover having been excepted from the State primary law. The county tickets will be in the usual form for this county, each one being numbered with all the names of the county candidates on them. They must be filled out by the voter in a booth, then folded and cast by him in the county primary box.

Under the rules of the State primary, each voter before being given a ballot, must declare his party affiliation. In this county, there is no Republican ticket in the primary and wherever there is a candidate for any office on the Republican ticket, he is without opposition, so that Republicans will not participate in the primary. The State primary law provides for the holding of primaries for both parties at the same time, but states specifically that wherever there is but one candidate he shall be declared the nominee of his party.

Voter May Have Help.

There is a commonly accepted idea that a voter may not accept the aid of anyone in marking his ballot, but Attorney General T. W. Bickett has ruled that such is not the case. The opinion of the Attorney General about voting in the primary will be of interest. He says:

"In my opinion the registrar has no right to distribute the official ballots, but must keep them in his possession, subject to his control and the control of the judges of election until the elector comes up to vote. The elector then states with which party he affiliates and is handed the ballots of that party. He can take the ballots and mark them secretly if he desires, or he can call on the judges to assist him, and there is nothing in the law that forbids his calling on any friends of his to assist him in the preparation of his ballot if he so desires."

National Primary Ballot.

On the Democratic primary ballot is left blanks for voting for President of the United States and for Vice President of the United States. Voters desiring to express their preference for candidates for these offices may write in the names of the men for whom they desire to vote. On this ballot also are the names of the candidates for Congress. On the tickets to be voted in this congressional district are the words: "For Representative in the Sixty-Fifth Congress of the United States for the Sixth District." Then follow the names of the candidates for this office from this district as follows: E. F. Young, J. A. Brown, H. L. Godwin, Joseph W. Little and Q. K. Nimocks. The voter will signify his choice by making a cross mark in the square opposite the name of the candidate for whom he elects to vote.

State Primary Ballot.

The State primary ballot contains the names of all candidates for State offices and the voter signifies his choice by placing a square opposite the name of the candidate for each office for whom he elects to vote. The names on this ballot follow:

For Governor—Thos. Walter Bickett, E. L. Daughtridge.

For Secretary of State—Haywood Clark, J. Bryan Grimes, J. A. Hartness.

For State Treasurer—B. R. Lacy, J. S. Mann.

For Attorney General—Thomas H. Calvert, Edmund Jones, James S. Manning, N. A. Sinclair.

For Commissioner of Labor and Printing—David P. Dellinger, Mitchell Lee Shipman.

For Member of Corporation Commission—D. L. Boyd, William T. Lee.

For Commissioner of Agriculture—W. A. Graham, Samuel Huntington Hobbs, A. J. McKinnon.

For Insurance Commissioner—C. T. McClenaghan, James R. Young.

For Judge Superior Court, Eighth District—W. P. Stacy, Addison G. Ricaud.

The names on the State ticket will not follow any regular order, as different tickets will have the names of candidates in different orders, the ballots being mixed so that there can be no complaint of anyone being first while another is last.

County Primary Ballot.

The names on the county primary ballot have been arranged alphabetically. The candidates for the different offices on this ticket follow:

For House of Representatives—Marsden Bellamy, L. Clayton Grant.

For Register of Deeds—John Haar.

For Sheriff—S. P. Cowan, J. N. Fennell, R. C. Fergus, George Jackson, Joseph H. Watters.

For Recorder—Brooke G. Empie, John J. Furlong, J. Felton Head, George Harriss.

For County Solicitor—K. O. Burgwin, E. T. Burton, W. F. Jones, George L. Peschau.

For County Commissioner, (Vote for three)—Addison Hewlett, Frank Herbst, W. A. McGirt, W. E. Worth, R. A. Wright, W. E. Yopp.

For Coroner—A. S. Holden.

For Constable Wilmington Township—John W. Capps, John H. Davis, C. W. Kunold, A. T. Piver, W. E. Watson.

For Magistrate for Wilmington Township, (Vote for five)—G. W. Bornemann, A. McD. Evans, J. J. Moore, G. W. Smith, John W. Smith, W. B. Savage, G. T. Williamson.

For Executive Committee—W. W. Love.

The tickets for the different townships will be the same except for the local township offices. For instance, the ticket for Seagate precinct is the same as for the Wilmington wards except for constable and for executive committee.

It is understood—conceded—that Mr. Herbst will be one of the three new county commissioners. People are already congratulating the county on their anticipated choice, as it is certain that New Hanover will have good roads, extended at a minimum cost. No one will take more interest in the needs of the county than Mr. Herbst and no one will come nearer taking care of the tax-payers' money than he.

TO OPERATE MILK STATION

Sorosis Committee Has Nearly Enough Pledges and Money in Hand to Start Benevolent Enterprise.

The committee appointed by North Carolina Sorosis to solicit funds for the proposed milk station for the city of Wilmington has been untiring in its efforts to raise a sufficient sum to purchase the equipment. The great need of the station was first brought to the attention of Sorosis by the physicians who lectured at the different schools during "Baby Week."

The Board of Health has signified its readiness and willingness to operate the station as soon as the necessary funds are available. A number of the physicians of the city, who have been specialists in treating babies, have offered their services free of charge and trained nurses will carry out the directions of the doctors and modify the milk to suit the individual child. The mothers are to procure the milk each day in bottle ready for use.

Those not able to pay will be supplied free of charge. The others will be provided at actual cost. This station in co-operation with the Baby's Hospital, now doing such effective work, will be the means of saving the lives of many babies during the heated period of summer, just beginning.

The following from the New York Evening Post regarding the philanthropic work being done in New York, will be of interest in this connection:

"Only by maintaining all the milk stations now in the city can New York successfully combat disease and death among babies, according to the New York Diet Kitchen Association, 1 West 34th street, in an appeal for funds issued today. The association feels that it is entitled to public support 'because we cover districts reached by no other milk stations, we duplicate no similar work, we have the support and approval of other welfare agencies who believe in our methods and value our service.'

"Last year the association dispensed 620,466 quarts of pure milk; had 5,770 babies under its care, lost only 67 babies through death, and had 5,112 mothers under instruction, while its nurses made 20,225 visits in homes, and 38,515 was the total attendance at baby conferences."

Those desiring to contribute any sum from 25 cents up will please notify Mrs. John Thames, chairman of the special committee, appointed by Sorosis to take charge of this work. A generous contribution is being made up by members of Sorosis and all who have furnished pledges are requested to send in the amounts promised to members of the committee within the next few days as the total amount, with the other pledges, and the amount now in hand, will be almost enough to meet the first need.

The following contributions are acknowledged with grateful thanks by the committee:

Dr. T. B. Carroll	5

GREAT MUSIC FESTIVAL IS POSTPONED THIS YEAR.

Impossible to Get Auditorium Built at Black Mountain This Season.

It has been learned with much regret by Wilmington musicians that on account of inability to get the auditorium in readiness for use this season, it has been decided to postpone the Damrosch Music Festival at Black Mountain this summer until next season. Under the direction of Mr. E. H. Munson a chorus of about 60 voices has been in training for the last several months with the intention of taking part in the great festival.

However, the Wilmington singers do not expect to stop training but will meet next Monday night at 8 o'clock at the Y. M. C. A. for the purpose of forming a permanent musical organization. Plans will be made at that time which it is hoped will result in securing for Wilmington the rendition of some of the great oratorios and other musical compositions.

The following dispatch was sent out from Asheville yesterday:

"Definite announcement was made here today to the effect that the Damrosch Music Festival, planned for the great Auditorium at Black Mountain in August, will not be held this year owing to inability to get materials in time for the construction of the Auditorium. Col. G. W. Hinshaw, vice president and general manager of the National Festival Chorus of America, is authority for the announcement.

"It had been stated that a temporary wooden auditorium would be erected this summer, and that the festival would be given in that, the concrete structure which is to seat 21,000 people being built in time for next year. Colonel Hinshaw declares that this statement was not authorized by the Festival Chorus officials, and that the only decision reached has been to postpone the festival until next year, when the mammoth building will be erected.

"Great preparations had been made for the event through this section of the State."

FEW MARRIAGE LICENSES.

Register of Deeds Haar Issued Only 22 During the Month of May.

Only nine marriage licenses for white couples were issued by Register of Deeds John Haar during the month of May, which is a smaller number than usual but he expects a big increase for June, the month of weddings. During the latter part of April, just after Lent, there were a large number of weddings. There were 13 licenses for colored couples issued during May by Mr. Haar.

—Mr. Henderson Cole, of the Wilmington Furniture Company, has returned from a business trip to High Point.

Experienced travellers have found great benefit by taking with them a bottle of Dr. SETH ARNOLD'S BALSAM. It cures illness caused by impure water and sudden changes of climate. Warranted by Elvington's Pharmacy.

PRETTY WEDDING SOLEMNIZED AT WINTER PARK PARSONAGE.

A marriage of much interest to a host of friends throughout the surrounding country took place last evening at 7:30 o'clock at the parsonage of Winter Park Baptist church, the ceremony being performed in a most impressive manner by Rev. J. A. Clark, pastor of the Winter Park Baptist church, the young people to the marriage vow being Mr. Earle H. Orrell, of Masonboro, and Miss Bessie Bene Hayes, of Gatesville, N. C.

It was a quiet wedding, the beautiful ring service being used and only the near relatives and closest friends of the young couple were present. The parlors of the parsonage were most tastefully decorated, the color scheme being pink and green and thi sbeing prettily carried out. Miss Mae Orrell, cousin of the groom, played the wedding marches, Lohengrin being used as the couple entered the parlor and Mendelssohn's Wedding March being used as the recessional.

The bride was attired in a beautiful gown of gray taffeta with hat and gloves to match with corsage bouquet of pink Killarney roses. She is a beautiful young woman of most charming personality, having first come to this section six years ago to teach in the public school at Masonboro Sound. After teaching there four years, she taught one year at Wrightsville and last year was one of the most successful and satisfactory teachers in the Cornelius Harnett school of this city.

The groom is a well known young farmer of Masonboro Sound, being highly esteemed by all those who know him.

The many friends of both the bride and groom wish for them all the joys and a happy wedded life. They will be at home to friends after about two weeks at Winter Park.

THE SUNBEAM CLUB GIVES FINE EXHIBITION

To a large and delighted audience the Sunbeam Club of Miss Mamie Alderman's Select School last night in the Academy of Music presented two charming little plays and observed other exercises incident to the recent closing of the school that were most creditable to the pupils themselves and to their instructors.

In connection with the exercises the various class and school distinctions were announced and proved very interesting to the pupils and their friends. Miss Ethel Orrell and Miss Leila Vollers secured the prize for securing the largest patronage for the handsome programme that was issued for the occasion, printed in colors and neatly arranged. Those who were honorably mentioned for being present every day were Julius Canady, Edward Therian, Sallie Bell Canady, Kathleen Green, Ganelle Green and Robert Carter.

The first part of the entertainment was the presentation of "The Smuggleman," by the younger pupils, with Miss Williams as accompanist. The cast of characters was as follows:

The Smuggleman.....Joe Schraeder
Gnomes—Edward Johnson, Earl Capps, John Benton and Harry Branch.
Guard .....Winton Green
Fairy Queen.....Lelia Vollers
Fairies—Edna Earl Mincy, Odies Marshall, Kathleen Green, Genelle Green, Elizabeth Sheehan.
Knights—Donald Parker, Robert Carter, Russell Mincy, Alex. Boon, Harry Willson, Horace Johnson.
Mothers—Marion Summerell, Lillian Carpenter, Madge Woods, Gladys Jones, Lucille Darden, Sallie Burriss, Mary Stubbs, Lelia Hawkins, Marie Kells.
Boys—Arnold Holden, Edward Thieran, Thos. McIntyre, Delmer Rand, James Wright and James Holton.

The production of the older pupils was entitled "The Rainbow Kimono" and it was splendidly presented in two acts by the following cast:

Nellie Van Tassel—President of Rainbow Kimono Society—Kathrine King.
Ruth Ashton—Vice President of Rainbow Kimono Society—Ethel Orrell.
Alice Marion—Treasurer of Rainbow Kimono Society—Jessie Monroe.
Isabel Sutro—Secretary of Rainbow Kimono Society—Mary Stubbs
Beatrice Courtney—Class Poet—Lucille Darden.
Olive Mercer—President of Basketball Team—Swana Albright.
Winifred Turner—Student—Kathrine Orrell.
Edith Jones—The New Senior—Nenah Woods.
Rose Jackson—Miss Penelope's Colored Maid—George Fredericks.
Time—The Present.
Locality—Miss Penelope Wright's Collegiate school for young ladies.

Incidental to the play was a specialty by Spanish entertainers from the Gymnasium Class of the Y. W. C. A., as follows: Misses Mae Wilson, Christine Schulken, Roxie Lewis, Street Roberts, Mary J. Lawther and Mrs. Watts.

The Excelsior Medals offered during the past season at the school were announced as having been won by Misses Lillian Carpenter, Kathleen Green, Ganelle Green, Sallie Belle Canady and Edward Therian. The latter had the added distinction of not having been absent a day and not having missed a word in spelling. James Holton had the honor of winning the penmanship prizes.

The honor roll for the year at Miss Alderman's school was as follows: Gladys Jones, Leila Vollers, Ethel Orrell, Harry Branch, Lillian Carpenter, Winton Green, Lucille Darden, Marion Summerell, Julius Canady, Kathleen Green, Edna Earl Mincy and Joe Schraeder.

The Thomas Payne Bagley medal, offered each year by Mrs. Eustace Norfleet as a memorial of her late brother, for the highest rank in scholarship during the year, was won by Miss Gladys Jones.

The school has had a most successful year in every department and the entertainment last night by the Sunbeam Club was a splendid climax for the altogether fine session just concluding.

PERSONAL PARAGRAPHS

—Mr. George J. Moore, of Atkinson, was a business visitor in the city yesterday.

—Mr. Frank H. Stedman, president of the Cumberland Savings & Trust Co., Fayetteville, spent yesterday in the city on a business trip and had the pleasure of meeting many of his old-time friends in Wilmington. He returned to Fayetteville last night.

LOCAL DOTS

—On account of a lack of a quorum there was no meeting of the Chamber of Commerce yesterday afternoon and the question of passing upon the new constitution and by-laws was postponed until the regular meeting which will be held next Thursday afternoon.

FURNITURE STORES JOIN IN HALF-HOLIDAY MOVEMENT

Fifty Stores in Wilmington Will be Closed This Afternoon.

With the furniture stores of the city agreeing to close their doors on Friday afternoon during the summer in order that their employes may have a half day during the week solely for recreation, the number of stores in Wilmington entering into this agreement now reaches a total of 50 or more. That it will be enlarged goes without saying for the idea has met with the cordial endorsement of the people of the city and it is confidently expected that soon Friday afternoons during the summer months will be observed as a general holiday.

Following the suggestion of Mr. Henderson Cole, who urged that the furniture dealers join in the movement, Mr. Thos. W. Harrison, manager of the dry goods store of A. D. Brown, who inaugurated the movement, called on the furniture dealers of the city yesterday and secured an agreement from the following to close on Friday afternoons during the summer:

Wilmington Furniture Co., Sterchi-Bancroft Co., C. H. Batson, W. Munroe & Co., Hanover Furniture & Music Co., W. J. Bradshaw & Co., Southern Furniture Co., W. J. Davis Furniture Co., Empire Furniture Co.

—TO THE VOTERS.—

Besides that utility of the Recorder's Court, which is evident to all, there are, as a result of the proper operation of the Court, a great many advantages which will directly benefit the individual voter together with the entire public, and which might be overlooked by some who have not made a specific study of the matter.

Among those advantages are:

First—There should be a saving to the tax payers, as a result of its minimizing both the criminal and civil work of our Superior Court.

Second—The administration of this Court should be in answer to and in harmony with that demand now being made by every citizen, and especially by the commercial world, that there shall be a more speedy conclusion of all matters litigated. Such a public demand is not only just, but is an absolute essential to our advanced commercialism. That system will result in a very considerable advantage to every one, in that it will increase the local circulation of money which otherwise remains tied up in law suits.

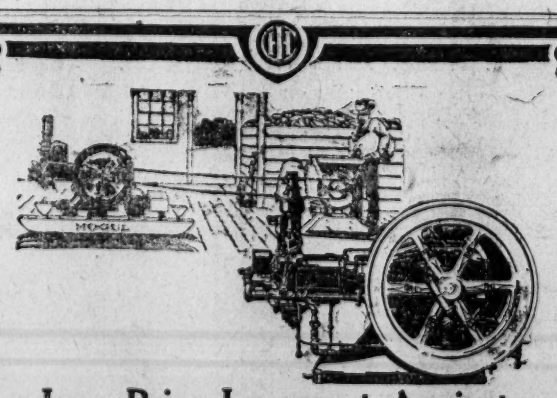

If elected Recorder, it will be my constant aim to see that these advantages to the public are completely and materially realized.

In conslusion, I wish to again thank my many friends, including those whom I have not yet had the pleasure of meeting, for their interest in my behalf, and for the assurance of their continued support and influence. Respectfully yours,

J. FELTON HEAD,

Candidate for Recorder, New Hanover County.

Low Price Loses out Against Low Cost

PRICE may sell some things to farmers, but price alone is a poor argument compared with the records for low cost of operation made by Mogul kerosene engines.

Because they run on kerosene, Mogul engines produce farm power at the lowest possible cost.

You know what gasoline costs. You know, too, what kerosene costs. Take the difference—multiply it by the number of gallons of fuel an engine will consume in five years, figuring one pint of fuel per horse power per hour.

At what price must you buy a gasoline engine to make it cost you as little as a Mogul does? Could you afford to accept a gasoline engine as a gift? See the dealer about this. He has the figures all worked out for you on all sizes of Mogul engines from 1 to 50 H. P.

JUDGE W. P. STACY

EIGHTH JUDICIAL DISTRICT

A LETTER FROM GOVERNOR LOCKE CRAIG

TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN:——

My attention has been called to a rumor in the Eighth Judicial District that I had already decided to appoint Mr. W. P. Stacy to the Judgeship before the delegation representing the other candidates appeared before me. Also my attention has been called to the statement of Mr. A. G. Ricaud, in his announcement, that the delegation which appeared before me in his behalf was heard on the same day that the commission was issued to my appointee, and that at that time "the matter had already been determined and the appointment made" without even an intimation from me that this had been done. These statements are incorrect and have no basis. At the time I left my office in the afternoon of the day that Mr. Ricaud's delegation appeared before me I had not decided whom I would appoint. I thought over the matter during the night, and issued the commission to Judge Stacy next day, having come to the conclusion that his habits, character and temperament eminently fitted him for this exalted position. I gave full consideration to every candidate whose names were presented to me, and my only desire was to arrive at a correct conclusion as to who was the best and most available man to appoint. I treated with fairness and candor every delegation that appeared before me, and did not make up my mind until I had heard all of them.

Yours truly,
LOCKE CRAIG.

Raleigh, N. C., May 30th, 1916.

He Is the Peaple's Choice

To the Democratic Voters of the Eighth Judicial District:

The record of Judge Stacy, "the youngest judge on the bench," during his few months of public service, is almost unparalleled. No man can offer a criticism of his character, capacity, fairness, or his eminent fitness for the bench. He has a capacity for dispatching business, and for saving expense to the county, which should be encouraged, and he exhibits a courtesy and consideration for all parties that impresses all with his great value to the State. His home people believe in him, and we feel that both laymen and lawyers should unite in renominating him and retaining his services. He has recently held a week's term of court in New Hanover, which would have been trying to a veteran judge, having disposed of three capital cases. His ability, fairness and decision of legal questions arising before nim are commented on favorably on all sides. We urge his renomition in the interest of the public welfare.

JUDGE W. P. STACY HIGHLY ENDORSED

JUDGE STACY PLEASES.

Members of the Windsor Bar Pay New Hanover Man High Tribute.

Windsor, N. C., Februarp 17.—Superior Court is in session. A small criminal docket has been disposed of. Owing to the illness of an attorney in several cases the civil docket has become very small. Hon. W. P. Stacy, Judge presiding, is giving satisfaction. He opened court promptly on time on Monday morning with the thermometer down below the freezing point.

A member of the local bar says of Judge Stacy:

"He is a clear thinker and expresses himself well. He has a merciful and just mind, and his judgments meet the public expectation. He hears with patience. He decides with firmness. He is bold, without explosions, and prompt without pyrotechnics. He is a plain, honest, fair-minded, able North Carolina judge. His performance of duty is good evidence of the wisdom of Judge Craig in appointing him judge."

It has also been learned here that at the Halifax term of Superior Court at which Judge Stacy presided before coming to this place, the members of the bar adopted resolutions of appreciation of the able and satisfactory manner in which Judge Stacy presided, but at request of Judge Stacy they were not published.

MAKES FINE IMPRESSION IN WARREN—BAR AND COURT OFFICERS ADOPT RESOLUTIONS.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Warrenton, N. C., January 24.—By a rising vote, the bar and officers of the court of Warren county, where Judge W. P. Stacy, of Wilmington, has just held his first term of court, following his appointment to succeed Judge Rountree, adopted the following resolutions:

"Whereas, Judge W. P. Stacy, of Wilmington, North Carolina, has presided at the January term of Superior Court of Warren county, and has transacted the business of this court with fidelity and great ability, to the profound satisfaction of the whole citizenship of this country,

"Therefore, be it resolved, By the bar and officers of the court of the said county of Warren, that we extend to Judge Stacy our sincere thanks for his splendid conduct, his courteous demeanor, and his able administration of the law.

"Resolved, further, That a copy of this resolution be spread upon the minute docket of this court and a copy published in the county papers, and a copy sent to The Star and The Dispatch."

Judge Stacy is the youngest of the Superior Court judges, yet with it all he comports himself with a real judicial dignity; he is firm and easy in his rulings and charges. It is firmness born, not of conceit, but backed by a profound knowledge of the law. One can even see that he is possessed of "reserve power."

Your correspondent had one citizen from the country to ask him: "What Jedge is dat; ain't he de same one was here four years ago?"

Judge Stacy desires to find the truth on both sides. From the moment when a judge desires to fin dthe trtuh on one side rather than another, it is all over with him as a judge. This causes many a judge to err.

The bar and the whole citizenship of Warren county anticipate with pleasure Judge Stacy's return here in June.

(Evening Dispatch, May 16, 1916.)

"Judge Stacy's charge was characterized by its calm impressiveness and the clearness with which he presented the legal points involved."

(Evening Dispatch, May 8, 1916.)

"Judge W. P. Stacy, of this city, convened his first Superior Court this morning in New Hanover county, making a charge to the Grand Jury which caused a deep impression upon the large number of persons present, and many commending comments were heard."

(Windsor Ledger.)

Promptly on time Hon. W. P. Stacy, Superior Court Judge, on a freezing morning on Monday last opened court and proceeded with his duty. This is Judge Stacy's third court. Governor Craig recently appointed him to the vacancy on the bench caused by the resignation of Judge Rountree. Judge Stacy is the youngest judge in the State; a man of the highest character; he is a graduate of the University; he knows the law, and does not fear to administer it—he does so firmly but mercifully; he is a clear-minded man; decides all questions promptly; hears with patience; deals justly. No judge ever made a better impression. In every respect, he has justified the wisdom of Governor Craig in elevating him to the high office of Superior Court Judge.

(Evening Dispatch, May 17, 1916.)

"Three capital cases in a week's time is not a very pleasant thought to have in connection with a county, and this is the record of the past week in New Hanover, but the fact that each one of these cases was tried without delay and a verdict promptly rendered goes to show that justice is not asleep in this county, but is working smoothly and well."

THEATRICAL

Edith Cortlandt, the role played by Kathlyn Williams, in Selig's stupendous ten-reel version of Rex. Beach's "The Ne'er Do Well" to be presented at the Royal today and tomorrow, around whom a great percentage of the stirring action in this mammoth photoplay production revolves, was a woman of rare intellectual power. She lived in an atmosphere of big things, because her mind lived in an atmosphere still higher. Love had not touched her, because she had not yet met the man. Her marriage was one of convenience, and, therefore, loveless. Too late, she found that her happiness lay in service and not in authority.

And when the man appeared, she was seized with the furious desire that a tigress has for its mate—to win him by purring methods or by force. She was not a bad woman; just one mismated by her own consent. And her very strength of character and mind, when the man came, urged her to win happiness at all costs, with the conviction that happiness would never be offered her again.

"The Ne'er Do Well" stars in the role of the Football Athlete, Wheeler Oakman, one of the most suitable actors on the stage, ensnared alike by the seductive Edith Cortlandt and the dazzling "Chiquita." Norma Nichols in the role of "Chiquita" adds much strength to the play with her portrayal of the fascinating, beautiful roguish creature of vivacious Spanish mind and action.

"The Ne'er Do Well" is the greatest photoplay ever presented at the Royal. The shows run two and a half hours, the first show beginning at 10:30 a. m. and the last show starting at 8:30 p .m.

"The Strange Case of Mary Page"—Grand today! Which means overflowing crowds all day and all evening Mary Page is becoming a living, breathing character in Wilmington. Countless thousands are sympathizing with her in the wierd and strange curse that seems to be dogging her every footstep. They are trying her for murder; for the murder of a man who has pursued and annoyed her; a multi-millionaire who believes that anything can be bought with his tainted millions.

Phillip Langdon is fighting the battle of his life for the woman he loves. Henry Walthall in this role displayed heights of dramatic strength heretofore unattained on the screen. He is casting his all on the moves of the giant game that is being played; fighting in response to the impulse that moves nations of men—love of a woman.

They are trying Mary Page for murder; she does not know whether she is guilty or not! Sometimes she has a hazy recollection of something indefinite—at other times she cannot account for her whereabouts or actions. Her mind seems to have become disarranged by the horror of that awful night when the crime was committed. The fifth great chapter today is replete with sensational turns and web grows tighter around Mary Page.

Two great comedies following on today's bill will lighten the tension created by Mary Page and send you all away happy. Come early, please.

"The Iron Claw" Today.

Have you yet decided who the "Laughing Mask" is? Well, you've more than likely got a surprise coming to you, whatever you think about it. For "The Iron Claw" the eleventh great chapter of which will be presented at the Bijou today contains still some new surprises for you who have been guessing and racking your brain during the past ten weeks. "The Laughing Mask" is on the job, there's no mistake about that, but just study carefully and see who it is that "The Laughing Mask" could possibly be. There'll be an interesting study in it for you and it will cause some deep thinking once you get started on the trail of the elusive and mystical character.

There's new twists and turns in the great chapter to be presented today and some more of those typical Pathe thrills and punches. You don't want to miss a single reel of this great picture. It's catching on like wildfire and gets more and more interesting every week.

A great Heinie and Louie comedy is on today and another great film, a reel of pictures taken at Uncle Sam's big shad hatchery at Albemarle Sound, N. C., taken under the auspices of the United States Bureau of Fisheries, who are now debating the shad supply question in the daily papers. It shows every aspect of the work of raising the young shad and is intensely interesting.

DUKE BACK OF DEVELOPMENT.

Quarter Million Dollar Hotel to be Built at Overhills.

Durham, N. C., June 1.—Mr. N. B. Duke, noted capitalist, has unfolded plans for the establishment of a big winter resort at Overhills, Cumberland county. The resort, it was said by Mr. Duke, will be the largest in North Carolina. It is without doubt the biggest undertaking, he said, since the establishment of Pinehurst. The project will be financed by Mr. Duke, Mr. George W. Watts of this city, Walter H. Marshall, manager of the Vanderbilt Hotel in New York; Former Sheriff James F. Jordan, of Greensboro, and Congressman Kent, of California.

The former sheriff of Guilford is the owner of 30,000 acres of land in that territory. Plans are already under way, Mr. Duke said, for the building of a $250,000 hotel, that is expected to be ready for guests by 1917.

DEATH OF FAIRMONT GIRL.

Miss Mary Baker Passes Away—Entire Community Saddened.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Fairmont, N. C., June 1.—The entire community was saddened this week by the death of one of Fairmont's most popular young ladies, Miss Mary Baker, who died in the Merriweather Hospital in Asheville Tuesday morning. She had been attending school at Mars Hill and was taken to Asheville to be treated for pellagra.

Miss Baker was one of Fairmont's best and most popular young ladies. She was only about 21 years of age. She had been an earnest member and worker in the Baptist church for some time and was loved by all who knew her. Her death was a shock to the entire community. She is survived by her mother, two brothers, and one sister.

FOR SOLICITOR

To the Democratic Voters:—

I herewith place my name before you as a candidate for the office of Solicitor of New Hanover County. If elected by our citizens to the important office of Solicitor, I shall deem it an expression of public confidence, an honor to me and a public trust, and it will be my constant aim to faithfully discharge the duties thereby imposed, in full keeping with the spirit and the letter of the law. In asking for your support, I am placing my record as a public official before you for close scrutiny and impartial investigation. What a man has done is the best evidence of what he may be expected hereafter to do. My record as police commissioner is the fullest assurance that I stand for the firm and fullest administration of the criminal law. Under no circumstances, if elected, will I unduly favor a friend or persecute an enemy. I have no ties, alliances or associations that will or can in any manner influence me in the discharge of a public trust and duty. I ask especially for the support of those citizens who believe in the fair, just, equal and firm administration of our criminal laws. W. F. JONES.

HON. J. BRYAN GRIMES
For Secretary of State

A Friend of the Confederate Soldier, Only Farmer in Council of State.

"Colonel Grimes is the only farmer at present among the officials of the State who compose the Council of State. He has been a farmer all his life. In him, therefore, the farmers have had, through the past four administrations, in close touch with the affairs of the State government, a representative who knows their problems, their needs, their views on public affairs, and sympathizes with their policies. He has studied agricultural questions, is well informed on all the problems of agriculture, and his writings and addresses on that subject are widely known and appreciated.

"For twenty-five years he has been closely identified with every movement in the State to improve the condition of the farmers, materially and educationally, and his influence has been a potent factor in securing legislation looking to the interests of agriculture. He has taken a deep interest in education, especially as it affects rural conditions; and as a member of the State Board of Education and of the Commission which adopts textbooks for use in the public schools he has done much towards adapting our schools and text books to the needs of rural conditions.

"He is a farmer who in high public office has been loyal to the interests of farmers, and I am writing this open letter to his fellow farmers because I am convinced that their best interests, as well as the general interests of the State, will be served by continuing him in the office which he has filled so efficiently.

"I cannot omit some reference to Colonel Grimes' interest in the welfare of the old Confederate soldiers. I am one of them, and I know whereof I speak. The son of Gen. Bryan Grimes, one of the ablest men that North Carolina sent to the Confederate service, he has always been zealous in preserving the history of the Confederate soldier, in seeing that justice is done to his memory, and in securing for him while living such material assistance as is necessary to enable him to spend his declining years in comfort."—Maj. J. B. Coffield, for many years Chairman of the Board of County Commissioners of Martin County—Frequently a Member of the General Assembly—Farmer—Confederate Veteran.

FOR RECORDER
JOHN J. FURLONG

The many friends of Mr. Jno. J. Furlong respectfully present him to the voters of New Hanover County for the office of Recorder, trusting that he will receive a generous support at the approaching Primary Election.

In asking for the support of the voters of this county, we feel that we can safely refer to the record heretofore made by Mr. Furlong in this office. We are sure that should he be elected to this responsible position he will temper the justice of the law with mercy to offenders, and yet so administer the duties of the Court as to preserve the peace and dignity of the community, and afford full protection to all citizens.

NOTICE OF SPECIAL ELECTION AND NEW REGISTRATION.

Notice is hereby given that the Council of the City of Wilmington, by an ordinance duly adopted on the 26th day of April, 1916, called and ordered to be held in the City of Wilmington on Saturday, the 3rd day of June, 1916, a special election for the purpose of submitting to the qualified electors of said City an ordinance adopted by said Council on the 26th day of April, 1916, by which ordinance the tax ordinance of said City for the fiscal year ending May 31st, 1917, and previously adopted by said Council, is amended, said amending ordinance fixing the total tax rate for said City for said fiscal year at $1.85 upon the one hundred dollars property valuation, and authorizing said Council to levy and collect as a part of the total rate aforesaid a special tax of 10c. on the one hundred dollars property valuation, or so much thereof as may be necessary for the purpose of improving and extending the water works system of said City, the purchase of additional fire fighting apparatus for the Fire Department of said City, the improvement of Princess Street in said City, and the establishment or creation of an industrial or manufacturing suburb to said City.

By said amending ordinance the propositions to improve said waterworks system and purchase for said Fire Department additional apparatus, the improvement of Princess Street and the establishment of said industrial or manufacturing suburb are provided to be voted upon separately.

The said Council has further ordered as provided by law an entirely new registration of the voters of said City for said election; the following named polling places have been designated and registrars and judges of election have been appointed for the holding and conducting of said election, namely:

First Ward Precinct—Polling place, Engine House, 4th and Campbell; Registrar, W. H. Howe; Judges, James Elkins, R. J. Darden, Sr.

Second Ward Precinct—Polling place, Court House; Registrar, W. W. Hodges; Judges, D. H. Howes, Jr., W. J. Meredith.

Third Ward Precinct—Polling place, Giblem Lodge, downstairs; Registrar, L. H. Partin; Judges, H. E. Bonitz, Coy Hewett.

Fourth Ward Precinct—Polling place, McClellan's Stables; Registrar, J. B. King; Judges, T. D. Love, S. Zeigler.

First Division, Fifth Ward Precinct—Polling place, New Engine House; Registrar, J. E. Taylor; Judges, A. W. Branch, Thos. Lawson.

Second Division, Fifth Ward Precinct—Polling place, Old Engine House; Registrar, T. G. Landen; Judges, J. B. Fales, M. Marshburn.

Sixth Ward Precinct—Polling place, Mann's Store; Registrar, J. F. Mann; Judges, W. I. Holt, W. A. Woods.

Said election will be held between the hours of sunrise and sunset on the said 3rd day of June, 1916.

Each registrar will, between the hours of 9:00 o'clock A. M. and 5:00 o'clock P. M., on each day (Sunday excepted) for seven days preceding the day for the closing of the registration books keep open said books for the registration of the voters in their respective precincts, and said registration books will be open from 9:00 o'clock A. M. until 9:00 o'clock P. M. on each Saturday during said registration period and shall be closed for registration on the 2nd Saturday before the 3rd day of June, 1916. No registration will be allowed on said election day except to such persons as shall give satisfactory evidence to the registrar and judges of election that he has become of the age of twenty-one years, or otherwise has become qualified to register and vote since the registration books closed for registration.

On the second Saturday before the election the registration books will be kept open at the polling places in the voting precincts for the inspection of electors and to enable challenges to be made to the right of any person to vote in said election whose name appears on said books, and if any person is objected to notice will be given him and a hearing granted, as provided by law.

The Council has appointed the registrars and judges of election as hereinbefore stated, and caused them to be notified of their appointment, and required them to take the oath required by law, and will cause to be furnished all necessary books and arrange for the ballots, and will fill all vacancies occurring either as to registrars or judges as provided by law, and will receive returns from said election as provided by law.

By order of the Council of the City of Wilmington.

THOS. D. MEARES,
ap30-td City Clerk and Treasurer.

FOR COMMISSIONER.

Relying upon a continuation of that good feeling, support and co-operation which the people, as a whole, have uniformly extended to the Board of Commissioners, and which has made possible whatever progress has been attained for the upbuilding of our county, I announce myself a candidate for Commissioner and will appreciate your support in the primary election on June 3rd. FINANCIAL AND COMMERCIAL

TREND OF COTTON UNSTEADY

Government Cotton Report Followed by Violent Fluctuations—Close Was Steady But at a Loss.

New York, June 1.—The first government report of the season was followed by violent fluctuations in the cotton market here today. After selling at 12.78 on the opening, October sold up to 12.95 immediately after the publication of the report and later broke to 12.66, closing at 12.69. The general list closed steady but at a net decline of 6 to 12 points for the day.

The market was comparatively quiet during the early trading. After opening steady 1 to 4 points lower, prices stiffened up several points during the early trading, and after showing a net advance of about four points, fluctuations were narrow and irregular until the condition figures appeared. During the first 10 or 15 minutes after the report of 77.5 per cent., against 80 per cent. last year and a 10-year average of 79.8 per cent. was issued prices worked rapidly higher. July sold up to 12.80 and December to 13.12 while January touched 13.16, or about 14 to 17 points above last night's close. Private condition reports had pointed to about 79 per cent. on the average and th official statement was a disappointment to recent sellers. The demand, however, soon petered out and the market weakened under liquidation and scattered selling for a reaction.

Stop orders were uncovered as the market broke into new low ground for the movement with July selling off to 12.51, December to 12.80 and January to 12.88 in the late trading.
to 12.88 in the late trading. The close was steadied by covering with prices showing slight rallies.

NEW ORLEANS COTTON.

Broad Price Changes Featured Market. Heavy Trading and Advance.

New Orleans, June 1.—Broad price changes featured the cotton market today. Heavy trading and rise of 13 to 15 points followed the condition report by the government of 77.5 per cent of the normal on May 25, but afterwards prices weakened and fell 12 to 14 points under yesterday's close on heavy short selling stimulated by the weekly weather reports that conditions since May 25 had been very favorable. From the highest to the lowest there was a drop of 31 to v3 points on the trading months. The close was steady at a net loss for the session of 10 to 12 points

Around the opening the market fell off 3 to 4 points on poor cables. There was a recovery on covering by shorts who wanted to even up prior to the condition report at 10 o'clock. At the best, before this time, the market was 4 to 5 points over yesterday's close. The trade looked for condition figures of about 80 and heavy buying resulted when they came in lower. The advance was brief and in the early afternoon the market was under severe pressure. Offerings of new crop months continued heavy until the end of the session.

Closing bid: July 12.45; October 12.53; December 12.64; January 12.74; March 12.87.

Spot cotton quiet, unchanged; sales on the spot 240 bales; to arrive 255 bales; middling 12.63.

STOCKS ON UPWARD MOVE

Railway Issues Supplied the Chief Incentive, N. & W. Going to 130.—War Issues Also Advance.

New York, June 1.—Disregarding the ominous Mexican situation and the uncertain political conditions, today's market moved to higher levels, after an early period of hesitancy. Rails supplied the chief incentive, Norfolk & Western showing the way by its gain of 5 points to the new high quotation of 130. Simultaneously, Norfolk & Western convertible 4 1-2s gained 2 5-8 points.

Other coal shares strengthened in sympathy, notably Reading and Lehigh Valley, with moderate gains in some of the Pacifics, including Hill shares. Grangers and Eastern lines were firm to strong.

War issues, particularly bonds, were again favorably influenced by peace rumors. Anglo-French 5s attained a new record at 102 1-2 and Japanese 4 1-2s bearing the German stamp and implying former ownership in the latter country, were up a point.

Shipping shares, rubber issues, Motors and Sugars featured the specialties. Mercantile Marine preferred gained 2 1-8, and United Fruit 2 3-8 points. Among obscure industrials the common and first and second preferred shares of the Gulf States Steel Company showed gains of 3 1-4 to 9 points and Lee Rubber made a new high record at 56. Mexicans, especially oils and some of the less prominent munitions and kindred issues were moderately heavy. Highest prices were shaded just before the close on renewed selling of Reading. Total sales 360,000 shares.

Bonds were firm. Total sales, par value, $3,750,000. United States bonds unchanged on call.

New York, June 1. — Cotton goods, were generally firm today, with some lines of print cloths easier. Yarns were firm and quiet. Raw silk was easier. Men's wear was bought for spring 1917 in shome quarters.

Washington, N. C., June 1.—Construction of a handsome new Sunday school annex to the First Methodist church will be commenced within 10 days. Excavation has been made for the building. The auditorium will have a seating capacity of between 400 and 500. It was intended to start work on the annex sooner, but by a mistake in the plans more ground was called for than the church owned and they had to be revised.

IN PREPARATION FOR TEACHERS' INSTITUTES

Half a Hundred Educators Open Conference in Raleigh.

Getting Ready for Institutes in Forty-Odd Counties—Addressed by Dr. Joyner—Four Arrests for Incendiary.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Raleigh, N. C., June 1.—A two days' conference of a half hundred educators who will conduct teachers' institutes in forty-odd counties of the State during the summer vacation months opened here today in Representatives Hall under the direction of E. E. Samms, of the State Department of Education. Dr. J. Y. Joyner, State Superintendent of Public Instruction, opened the conference with an address in which he treated comprehensively and inspiringly the purposes of the institute work and the means of making it meet the needs of the teachers and inspire rather than discourage them in their efforts for improvement.

The conference is to cover the whole scope of the institute work and is really an institute for the institute workers, demonstrating especially the best manner of conducting these institutes.

A fourth arrest has been made in the investigation of the incendiary fire in the store of George & Shahine, on Martin street. This is W. L. Walker, who was conducting a special sale of the firm when the fire occurred Monday night. The others under bond are Joseph George, George Shahine and J. E. DeFarrie, the latter a clerk. The fact that there was $6,500 insurance on a stock that was reduced to less than $1,000 and the broken window and door that were found in connection with the fire are other conditions that throw suspicion on the members of the firm and others.

The Federal court here closed the spring term today, having tried the fewest number of cases for distilling and selling liquors in the history of the court in recent years. The court officers believe this is really due to a very great falling off in the number of actual violations of the law. However, the court has largely discontinued effort to prosecute for retailing ,leaving this to the State and the municipal courts. Judge Connor sentenced John Dempsey, a painter, to one year in the Atlanta prison for inducing a wife who was feeble-minded, to elope from her husband at Laurenceville, Va., and accompany him to Raleigh. She brought her four-year-old daughter with her. The husband was here for the trial and carried the erring wife and the child back with him.

A charter was issued today for the Glenburnie Country club, of New Bern, capital $25,000 authorized and $1,500 subscribed by T. G. Hyman, Clyde Eby Q. A. Uzzell and others for maintaining a country club, the location not being yet specified.

MATINEE FOR CHILDREN

Splendid Programme Booked for Victoria Theatre Saturday Afternoon.

For Saturday's matinee at the Victoria Theatre for the children, the management has booke dthat great three reel production, "Aladdin and His Wonderful Lamp," one of the spectacular films ever made, based on one of those wonderful Arabian Nights stories that everyone is familiar with. Alladin and His Wonderful Lamp" is a spectacular masterpiece in three reels, and cannot but prove highly delightful to both children and grown-ups.

The kiddies have been given a great comedy as they have been wanting something along that line. So the management has booked one of those great Heinie and Louie comedy screams, "More Trouble" full of laughs for both young and old.

A great educational subject is the current installment of "Siberia, the Vast Unknown" a spectacular reel, showing among other sights, the round-up of ten thousand reindeer in one bunch.

"On The Island of Luzon" is a picturesque film taken in Philippine Islands, showing many of the quaint customs of the people and is intensely interesting. Three complete shows will be given, at 2, 3:15 and 4:30 p. m. with admission five cents to young and old.

TELLS OF WORK OF THE BUREAU OF OPERATIONS

veloped plan of mobilization for the entire fleet in the event of war," Admiral Benson said, "has been submitted to the department and approved. Each bureau and office with the department has been assigned its particular duties in connection with this plan and reports quarterly to the department, giving detail of the progress of each towards preparedness to accomplish its task in mobilization. The plan for the organization of the naval districts has been worked out in every detail. The question of mine localities has been studied. Officers have been assigned to the various duties of each district for war purposes and distribution of vessels for district defenses has been made."

Every ship of the fleet is ready for instant duty, he added, with the exception of the battleships Georgia and Connecticut, which are undergoing boiler repairs.

FRECKLES

Don't Hide Them With a Veil; Remove Them With the Othine Prescription.

This prescription for the removal of freckles was written by a prominent physician and is usually so successful in removing freckles and giving a clear, beautiful complexion that it is sold by any druggist under guarantee to refund the money if it fails.

Don't hide your freckles under a veil; get an ounce of othine and remove them. Even the first few applications should show a wonderful improvement, some of the lighter freckles vanishing entirely.

Be sure to ask the druggist for the double strength othine; it is this that is sold on the money-back guarantee.

VIRGINIA DEMOCRATS IN CONVENTION TODAY

Gathering at Roanoke Expected to be Largest in History.

Every Democratic Congressman and Over 2,000 Delegates Had Arrived Last Night—Wilson Will be Endorsed.

Roanoke, Va., June 1.—Men, who represent the leaderships in the Democratic party in Virginia, and between 2,000 and 2,500 delegates are in Roanoke tonight to attend the State convention of Democrats which opens here at noon tomorrow. Every members of Congress from Virginia, with the exception of Representative Slemp, Republican, of the Ninth district, is here. It is believed tomorrow's gathering will be one of the largest in the history of the party in this state.

Election of 24 delegates to the National convention at St. Louis, the naming of 12 National electors, and the selection of a National committeeman and state chairman will be the business of the convention. Representative Carter Glass, of the Sixth district, is slated for National committeeman without opposition. Rorer A. James, of Danville, prominent in Virginia politics for many years, is mentioned for state chairman, although some leaders have put forward the name of Representative Flood, of the Tenth district. Known candidates for delegate at large, so far unopposed, are Governor Henry C. Stuart, Representative Flood and Senators Thomas S. Martin and Claude A. Swanson.

Tonight the state committee named Representative E. W. Sanders, of the Fifth district, temporary chairman of the convention. Harry R. Houston, of Hampton, speaker of the Virginia house of delegates, is slated for the permanent chairmanship.

TWO CUMBERLAND WHITE MEN SENTENCED TO STATE PRISON

Allen D. Stephenson and Charlie Muse Given Two Years Each.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Fayetteville, N. C., June 1.—Allen D. Stephenson was convicted of seduction with promise to marry, by a Superior Court jury here yesterday and sentenced to two years in the State prison by Judge F. A. Daniels. Stephenson refused to marry the girl in the case until after his conviction. With a two-year sentence staring him out of countenance he is now willing to enter the wedded state, but the girl will not marry him after he has forced her into the publicity of the trial. Stephenson's attorney's gave notice of appeal from the conviction, but it is thought that they will not appeal. The two years is considered comparatively light.

Charlie Muse, who last winter escaped from the Cumberland county jail in company with Will Jones and Jim Riddle and later gave himself up, was convicted of arson in Superior Court here this morning and was sentenced to two years in the State prison by Judge Daniels. Muse is charged with burning an unoccupied dwelling at Hope Mills last January. Jones with whom Muse broke jail, was arrested for the same offense. He has never been apprehended.

FORTY SCHOLARSHIPS OFFERED

To Home Demonstration and Canning Club Workers.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Fayetteville, N. C., June 1.—The offer of 40 scholarships to home demonstration workers and canning clu borganizers in the South by the George Peabody College for Teachers at Nashville, Tenn., is announced by Mrs. T. L. Bayne, of Overhills, supervisor of the girls' canning clubs of Cumberland and Harnett counties. This is the first public announcement of the scholarship offer that has been made. The scholarships are given by Montgomery Ward & Co., of Chicago, and are divided into two groups, the first having a value of $50 and the second with a value of $25.

"These scholarships," says the announcement, "are to be awarded to active and prospective extension workers who wish to attend short courses in the summer quarter (beginning June 15, 1916) or in the winter quarter (beginning January 2, 1917). Appointments will be made upon the recommendation of the national, state and district agents. All correspondence should be addressed to George Peabody College for Teachers, Nashville, Tenn."

POSTOFFICE RECEIPTS

Wilmington Office Shows an Increase for May Over April of $373.51.

The Wilmington postoffice receipts for the month of May were $12,655.09 as compared with $12,282.58 for the month of April, showing an increase of $373.51, according to the figures compiled by Postmaster Green. The Wilmington office has shown a consistent increase throughout the year over the same period for last year although the gains have not been great.

Postmaster Green said last nigh that a carrier was put on duty at Wrightsville Beach yesterday. Three deliveries and two collections will be made each day, one carrier giving his entire time to the beach.

try's quota of 500,000 men abroad to aid in the enforcement of peace.

Speaker Clark Takes Floor.

Mr. Gardner wanted to know whether the United States would arbitrate the Monroe doctrine, if it were assailed, the Chinese question, and others. That brought the Speaker to his feet.

"I wouldn't take the time of this committee if I did not believe that this is the most important section of this bill," said the Speaker. "The gentleman from Massachusetts wants to know if we ever would arbitrate the Monroe doctrine. No, we never will arbitrate while the earth spins on its axis."

NEW GYMNASIUM THIS YEAR FOR DAVIDSON

Corner Stone of New $25,000 Building Laid at Commencement.

Diplomas Received by 43 Graduates, Including One Wilmington Man. Medals Awarded—Persian Student Wins Honor.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Davidson, N. C., June 1.—Closing a very successful year, the fourth under Dr. W. J. Martin's administration as president, the 80th annual commencement of Davidson College has passed. The prospects for next year are great. There will be an addition of two new professors next year who will greatly strengthen the faculty. Dr. Martin announced the completion of the $100,000 endowment fund and stated that $25,000 will be put into a new gymnasium to be known as the Alumni Gymnasium, the corner stone of which was laid Wednesday afternoon.

On Wednesday afternoon a very pleasing presentation of selections from Shakespeare was given on the campus. W. G. Morrison, of Okolona, Miss., was the successful contestant for the senior orator's medal yesterday morning. His subject was "Defects in the Present College Education." After this contest 43 young men were awarded diplomas—22 the B. S. degree and 21 the degree of A. B. Besides these, three received the degree of M. A. Edwin J. McIntire was Wilmington's representative in the B. S. group. Harlee Morrison was awarded the Bible medal for the best grade on the entire course.

The annual oratorical contest between the Philanthropic and Eumenean societies was held Tuesday night. The representatives of these societies were juniors previously chosen. The winner was William Y. Sayad, a member of the Eumenean society and a native of Persia. He has been in this country only three years and deserves much credit for the honor he has achieved in winning this orator's medal.

Following these exercises came the faculty reception to alumni and friends. There were a good number on the Hill and the reception was greatly enjoyed. Tuesday night the following medals were awarded:

Declaimer's—Philanthropic, George F. Webber; Eumenean, George C. Bellingrath.

Debater's—(Freshman and Sophomore) Philanthropic, J. L. Fowle; Eumenean, George C. Bellingrath; (Junior and Senior) Philanthropic, R. H. Ratchford; Eumenean, S. G. Egerton.

Essayist's—Philanthropic, R. H. Ratchford; Eumenean, W. Y. Sayad.

Fiction—S. A. Chambliss.

growth, and in some sections it was also too dry. Cutworms were doing some damage in the lower Mississippi valley.

Early in May it was found that much cotton seed had failed to germinate well, and a generally poor stand was reported, because of cold and dry weather. Conditions were somewhat improved during the first week in May but replanting was delayed in the Southeast because of lack of rainfall. Chopping was going on in most of the southern sections. Cutworm damage continued in parts of the lower Mississippi valley.

Toward the middle of May warmer weather prevailed in most of the cotton states and there was a decided improvement except where dry weather continued. Planting in the northern parts of the belt was finished toward the end of the month, but much replanting was necessary. Cultivation of the crop was going on vigorously in most sections.

Reports from the Department of Agriculture's correspondents and agents show the condition of the crop on May 25 as follows, with comparison for the last two years:

States	1916	1915	1914
Virginia	89	88	83
North Carolina	76	85	76
South Carolina	65	80	72
Georgia	73	81	80
Florida	82	80	82
Alabama	76	78	85
Mississippi	83	82	87
Louisiana	82	76	82
Texas	78	79	65
Arkansas	87	84	79
Tennessee	86	85	80
Missouri	87	90	86
Oklahoma	85	76	68
California	97	82	100
United States	80.0		74.3

The tentative dates of issue of the Department of Agriculture cotton reports this season are:

Saturday, July 1, condition as of June 25 and estimate of the area planted.

Tuesday, August 1, Condition as of July 25.

Thursday, August 31, condition as of August 25.

Monday, October 2, condition as of September 25.

Monday, December 11, estimate of total production of the crop.

A statement issued by the department reads:

"Conditions are reported best in the alluvial lands of the Mississippi river and its tributaries and in the Southern portions of the Gulf States, east of the Mississippi.

"In Texas conditions are near an average, being best in the central and northern portions. In practically all of the western belt moisture has been ample and in some sections excessive.

"Conditions are lowest in South Carolina, and in the northern part of Georgia, due to a priod of drought, happily relieved by bountiful rains immediately prior to th edate of the report."

During the week ending May 30, the National Weather and crop bulletin issued today says, the weather was decidedly favorable for cotton.

The rains of the preceding week, followed by considerably higher temperatures caused a rapid development. Plants are backward, but are improving steadily, an uneven stand is reported, however, in Texas. Cultivation has been delayed in places, and fields are somewhat grassy, but chopping is going on int the Southern part of the cotton region. Boll weevil are reported in Jackson county, Florida and are quite general in Southern Alabama. There are some reports of squares forming in Alabama and Mississippi.

There was a decided improvement in corn in nearly all parts of the country.

Winter wheat is heading short in Virginia.

Harvesting of oats is in progress in the Southern states.

Potatoes are being harvested in practically all Southern states but somewhat later than the average. Transplanting of sweet potatoes is under way, under favorable conditions, in Georgia and South Carolina.

Tobacco plants are growing well and transplanting is in progress as far north as Virginia and Kentucky. South Carolina indicates tobacco is backward but improving. Sugar cane and rice are favorable.
